—It's official

(FROM PAGE 1)

Board forwarded its official tally to the Chief Clerk of the Baltimore Supreme Bench. Any candidate who feels there are irregularities that the Board did not correct has 48 hours to file a motion with the court for a recount.

If there is no contest after the 48-hour wait, results will be forwarded to the State Election Board which will certify Mitchell and the other successful candidates as winners All are subject to the November 7 General Election.

Two years ago when Mitchell won the congressional election by 37 votes, the loser in that race, Samuel Friedel, had a Congressional Investigating Committee come in to check the results.

The Md. State Advisory Committee to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission also held hearings on voter irregularities in the district.

"The reason Mitchell and Russell picked up some more votes in our official canvass was that a few judges read the voting machines wrong. That's all. These are honest mistakes and are easily picked up Mr. McQuad explained.

Election officials announced that Verdell Adair is the winner of the 7th District Republican nomination for Congress over two other candidates. Mr. Adair's official results remained at 1,860 votes.

Adair, a school teacher, will square off against Cong Mifchell in the General Election.

Official winners of the Democratic convention race were announced as: Congressman Mitchell, Del. Hildagardeis Boswell, (D 4th), Mrs. June Wing, Earl Banks, Robert L. Douglass and Sen. Verda F. Welcome (D. 4th).

terror."

Each report has placed considerable blame for the plight of the jail on the warden, who runs the jail "on a basis of almost absolute discretion."

One report, from the Mayor's Marbury Committee, described the jail's troubles this way:

"There has been an administrative breakdown. . . Security and safety are at a critically low level. . . Impulsive action by the warden seems to have precipitated the April 5th riot."

At Wednesday's budget hearing, the warden complained about having to make do with 25 Public Employment Program (PEP) workers (mostly poor Army veterans) instead of qualified correction officers.

He said he does not need "second, third and fourth class citizens as guards."

Of the 25, he said he got only one decent guard, 12 vacancies and numerous counts of tardiness.

Also the warden was not completely happy with the newly budgeted 21 food service workers. Their lowly $4,800 salary, he said, is bound to make them thiefs in the kitchen and traffickers in drugs.

He said, however, most of this year's $300,000 deficit is due to inmates who are presently kitchen aides. He said, "They steel faster than you can imagine."

To the warden's remark about PEP workers, Dr. Julian said, "It is really hard to believe a public employee in this day and age should start talking about his fellow man as a second, third or fourth class citizen."

Another Schoonfield critic, Delegate Troy Brailey told the AFRO, "The warden is totally out of step with what's going on. The warden is, in my opinion, a dictator."

At the hearing, Councilman Robert Fitzpatrick asked Budget Committee Chairman Joseph Curran why $150,000 was slashed from the jail's requested rehabilitation needs.

When he was told $100,000 for the "rehab" program was to pay inmates a dollar a day for work, he had no further complaints with the cut.

The Board of Estimates approved jail budget is $5,537,739, a $728,515 increase from this year's. This includes over $450,000 in added personnel costs.

The money includes the following money for repairs: $8,400 for protective grilles, $175,000 for replacing defective locks, $10,000 in kitchen repairs, $8,000 for re-designed visitor booths and $15,000 for replacing leaking toilet seats.

—Confesses

fired upon Gregory Wallace after the victim's brother, Garry, slapped a woman.

Numerous fights were in progress at the dance when the defendant fired the three wild shots, stating, "I'll teach you to strike a woman," the court was told.

Miss Copeland was shot in the head as Wallace ran by her, evidence showed.

Wallace suffered injuries of the stomach and right arm.

Butler's brother, William, 22, who resembles him, was arrested by police and jailed for several weeks, the prosecution added.

However, William Butler told Attorney Kramer that he was not guilty and admitted Joshua committed the crimes, it was disclosed.

The defendant's mother, Mrs. Octavia Ross Butler, who was called by the attorney, later accompanied her son, Joshua, when he confessed to police.
