Wake break: stay alive driver aid

While you're out driving this Memorial Day weekend if you get tried, stop and take a coffee break on the house.

The Radio Emergency Citizens Association, Inc. Memorial Day Coffee Safety Stop is set to help keep holiday travelers alert and alive.

The "wake break" station, manned by C. B.'s and Howard Johnsons, is located at Reisterstown Rd. and Beltway, Pikesville, Md. It will be in operation from 7:30 a.m. to 12 a.m., May 28 through May 29.

"Our objective," said Seymoure J. Gross of Baltimore, who is chairman of the accident-prevention activity, 'is to give travelers an opportunity to rest and relax from the pressures of holiday driving.

"Too many people push themselves to the furthest limits of distance and endurance during long weekends. As a result, many become victims of fatigue, drowsiness and highway hypnosis," he said.

"The more drivers we can induce to leave the highway for a free coffee break," he continued, 'the better are the chances of offsetting these hazards."

The radio Emergency Citizens Association, Inc. project is part of Operation Coffee Stop, a Radio Emergency Citizens Association, Inc. campaign to help reduce the number of traffic accidents.

"It's a sad and shocking fact," said Gross, "that almost as many Americans died on our highways in 1971-1972 as were killed in battle in all of World War I.

'Since the turn of the century, traffic accidents have claimed more than than two and one half times the number of Americans lost in battle since the American Revolution," he said.

MISS RETHIA M. ROACH, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude R. Harris of Cherry Hill, delivered the senior address when she was graduated from the Union Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, Thursday. Miss Roach graduated from Western High School in 1965.

MRS. ALBERT (JACQUELINE) WESTMORELAND of Cherry Hill has returned home from a month's stay in Africa and Europe. In Ethiopia, Africa, she was the guest of Miss Irene Richardson, of Chester, Pa., who is with the U.S. Consolate, there. She also visited in Kenya. Her stay in Europe was divided between Paris, France and Rome, Italy. While Mrs. Westmoreland was abroad Mr. Westmoreland took their sons, David, 6, and Daskwah, 3, to Monterey, Mexico.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER — Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr. will give the main address at the Eighty-first commencement of Goucher College Sunday on the college campus in Towson, Md. at 10:30 a.m.
