Charles Jones cited by Coast Guard

Charles E. Jones, engineering equipment operator at the U.S. Coast Guard Yard, has been given a special achievement award of $100 for high work performance and dedication.

In presenting the award, Commander Norman E. Cutts, chief of the public works department, read a letter from Capt. L. W. A. Renshaw, commanding officer.

The letter made special note that Mr. Jones had "developed knowledge of operating heavy equipment until he not only knew how to operate such equipment, but could also make many minor repairs and adjustments normally requiring the services of an automotive mechanic."

In addition, Mr. Jones' accident-free record while operating Yard equipment and his excellent attendance record have demonstrated the award is well deserved.

Mr. Jones, who has over 29 years government service, resides on Vickers Road.
