Miss Ray married to Marvin Wiggins

Miss Sheila Constance Ray, daughter of Frederick M. and the late Mrs. Hypatha Sanders Ray, was married recently to Marvin M. Wiggins, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. (Georgia Francis) Wiggins of Hampton, Va.

The double-ring ceremony in the Chapel of The Holy Trinity Episcopal Church at Lafayette and Wheeler Avenues, was performed by the Rev. Robert M. Powell, assisted by the Rev. Alfred E. Culley, who was a former teacher of the bride at Forest Park High School.

Music was by Norman Ross, organist and a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Naomi Booker, soprano, Mrs. Olivia Frazier, alt. Earl Booker, tenor, and James Taylor, bass.

Honoring the bride's request that the traditional music from Wagner's Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's A Midsummer Night's Dream not be used, the quartet sang for the processional "Lord, We Come Before Thee on This Wedding Day" a text written by the bride's father and a fellow musician, Mrs. Phyllis Hicks of Silver Spring, Md., and fitted to the music of Henry Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary." Krak-Elert's Chorale, "Now Thank We All Our God" was used for recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Bertha Borum, who wore a full length light blue gown of polyester voile and carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies, yellow roses and baby's breath with light blue trim. Her head piece was light yellow.

The bride, wearing a full length gown of white organza with long sleeves and floor length veil, carried a cascade bouquet of white minature carnations and baby's breath with eucalyptus with white trim.

Lawrence V. Hale of Hampton, Va., was best man. Marshalls were Gregory Greene of Baltimore and Eddie Wiggins of Hampton. Acolytes were Walter J. Freeman and his sister, Miss Karen E. Freeman, of Holy Trinity.

The bride and groom chose to keep their wedding party small in order not to detract from the religious meaning of their marriage. The Service "The Celebration and Blessing of A Marriage" was read by Fathers Powell and Culley from The New Trial Book of Prayers.

The bride is a graduate of Forest Park High School and Morgan State College. She has a bachelor's degree in mathematics and is employed in the Computer Science Department of The Bell Telephone Laboratories in Holmdel, N.J.

Mr. Wiggins is a graduate of Hampton High School and Hampton Institute. He has a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering and is employed in the Engineering Department of Bell Telephone Company in East Orange, N.J.

Standing for the bride's mother was her maternal aunt, Mrs. John Arthur Moore of Raleigh, N.C.

Other out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wiggins of Hampton; his brothers James Jr., and Eddie of Hampton; his grandmother, Mrs. Nola Deloatch of Holland, Va.; his aunt, Mrs. Spencer Campbell of Mount Vernon, N.Y.

The bride's other out-of-town relatives were uncles and aunts: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sanders of Henderson, N.C., Mrs. Thelma Autry of Chapel Hill, N.C., Mr. and Mrs. Norvell Smith of Washington, D.C., Johnnie Jones and Mr. and Mrs. George Jones of Washington, Mrs. Willie Mae McLamb of Raleigh, N.C., Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Ray of Hampton, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Ray of Philadelphia and Curtis Ray of Norfolk, Va.

The reception was held in the church. The bride's grand-mother, Mrs. Sally Scott of Baltimore was at the head of the receiving line.

'Sisters' mark Support Week

Both Big Sisters and Little Sisters had a part in the recent observance of Big Sister Week.

The first activity was a bus trip to Washington that included sightseeing and a picnic. One day was set aside for the distributing of buttons asking the recipients to "SUPPORT BIG SISTERS" by donation, participation or both. Big Sisters were on downtown corners and in the Mondawmin Mall. There was open house one night during the week's celebration. The week was climaxed on Sunday with a luncheon and a workshop.

The workshop that centered around the topic of "Growing Girls and Their Problems" was led by Dr. Oakley H. Saunders. There was participation by mothers and Big Sisters. Mrs. Willnetta Sutton conducted a workshop for the Little Sisters. The Socialettes, a civic and social club provided dessert and beverages for the luncheon.

The affair was planned and executed by Big Sisters Alma W. Brown and Regina Denehan. The workshop and luncheon were held in the office of the organization at 2201 Maryland Avenue.

Present at luncheon were:

Jeannette Jones, Robin Traylor, Victoria Warfield, Donna White, Kathleen White, Regina Bezemore, Velma Springfield, Regina Springfield, all Little Sisters;

Mesdames Marian Johnson, Charlotte Murray, Eunice Matthews, Vivian Holmes, and Allyne Peters, Socialettes;

Mesdames Josephine Hurtt, Judith Humphrey, Marie Berry, Carlene Lynch, Helen Benton, Alma Brown, Willnetta Sutton, Eleanor Cooper, Regina Denehan, Fannette Thomas, Mrs. Johnson, Eleanor Dobos, Allyne Peters, Myrtle Koger, Lillie Jule Seward, Mary Carter Smith, Eursilla Grove, and Roselle Hunt, Big Sisters; and Mr. Willie Nowden, Novella Cockrell, Gwendolyn Springfield, Pearl Scringfield, and Mrs. White, and Dr. Saunders.

Moving on with UNCF

Like thousands of students, Renee McCracken is moving on to a productive, meaningful life because of her studies in a UNCF college.

The United Negro College Fund (UNCF) gives financial support to help its thirty-six member colleges maintain top-grade educational facilities. UNCF has also given encouragement to promising high school graduates. The kind of encouragement that has helped five generations of black students to a college education.

Support UNCF and its member colleges. America's young people need the kind of encouragement UNCF has to offer. The United Negro College Fund, 55 E. 52nd Street, New York, New York 10022.

Renee McCracken is a student at Huston-Tillotson College in Austin, Texas. Contributions solicited by her schoolmates totaling more than $20,000 won for her the title of "Miss UNCF" in campus fund-raising competition with the 35 other UNCF colleges.
