

J. MILLARD TAWES, Treasurer

J. Millard Tawes was born in Crisfield, the son of Alice Byrd and James B. Tawes, on April 8, 1894. He attended the public schools of Somerset County, the Wilmington Conference Academy and Sadler's Bryant and Stratton Business College, where he specialized in the study of banking and accountancy. He married Helen Avalynne Gibson on December 25, 1915, and they have one son, Philip, and a daughter, Mrs. William R. Wilson, Jr.

He began his political career in 1930 when he was elected Clerk of the Court for Somerset County. He served two terms in that office. In 1938, he was elected State Comptroller and was re-elected in 1942. Governor Lane appointed him State Bank Commissioner in 1947 and he held that position until 1950 when he was appointed Comptroller of the Treasury to fill the unexpired term of James J. Lacy. He was re-elected Comptroller in 1950 and again in 1954 without opposition. He was elected Governor of Maryland in 1958 and was re-elected in 1962. He served as Honorary President of the Maryland Constitutional Convention of 1967-1968. Governor Mandel appointed him Secretary of the Department of Natural Resources on July 1, 1969 and he occupied that position until 1971. Governor Mandel appointed him Treasurer of Maryland in 1973 to fill the unexpired term of John A. Leutkemeyer.

Mr. Tawes is the former Secretary-Treasurer of the Crisfield Shipbuilding Company and former Vice President of the Tawes Baking Company. He was also associated in the management of the Tawes-Gibson Lumber Company, the Tawes-Gibson Packing Company, and a Director of the Bank of Crisfield. He is a former Treasurer of the Wilmington Conference Education Society, Inc., and is a member of numerous clubs and fraternal organizations. He is a member of the Board of Directors of McCready Memorial Hospital and a former Chairman of the Southern Governors Conference and past president of the National Association of State Auditors, Controllers and Treasurers.

FRED L. WINELAND, Secretary of State

Fred L. Wineland was born in Washington, D. C. on August 16, 1926 the son of Lloyd J. and Elsie (Pezold) Wineland. He was educated in the public schools of Washington, D. C., American University, and graduated from Southeastern University. During World War II, he served in the U.S. Navy. After his discharge, he joined a business established by his father in 1929, now Wineland Enterprises a chain of motion picture theaters and closed television operations. Today, as Vice President and Treasurer, Mr. Wineland operates the business with his father and brother.

In 1957, he moved to Silesia, Prince George's County, where he now resides. He was the chairman of the county's 1962 Democratic primary election campaign, as well as the 1964 general election campaign. He was a member of the House of Delegates from 1963 to 1965, serving on the Banking, Insurance and Social Security Committee. In 1965, he was appointed to the Senate. He was elected to a full term in 1966 and re-elected in 1970. During this time, he was a member of the Committee of Economic Affairs, the Ethics Committee and the Senate Finance Committee. He also was Chairman of the Executive Nominations Committee. He was appointed Secretary of State by Governor Marvin Mandel on February 12, 1971.