Grooming Class slated June 28

A grooming class, taught by a former professional model, will be offered at a YWCA program center.

The first of six one-hour sessions will begin Wednesday at 10:30 a.m., June 28. The course will be held at the Northwood-Appold Methodist Church, Loch Raven and Cold Spring Lane.

Classes are open to girls 12 years of age and older at a fee of only $3 plus a $2 YWCA membership.

Girl's camp aids working mothers

A camp program especially meeting the needs of girls whose mothers work, is being offered by the YWCA Central Center, 128 West Franklin Street. In session from 8:45 a.m. to 4 p.m. with optional baby sitting from 4 to 5 p.m. at a low fee, from Monday through Friday, the program's hours closely parallel those of working mothers.

Known as Camp Y-Ho-Waa, the program takes girls, ages 6 through 14 to Patapsco State Park for two days per week for camp crafts, hiking, nature lore and a weekly cookout.

Two days per week are also spent at the Central Center for swimming, trampoline work, and arts and crafts. Friday of each week is trip day, including to Washington and Greenbrier State Park.

Cost of the program is $17 per week for one girl, $14.50 for two girls in one family, plus a $2 yearly YWCA membership. For information call the YWCA, 685-1460.
