NIH Grant given to Coppin

The National Institute of Health has offered Coppin State College a grant of approximately $33,000 to support a program in Biomedical Sciences consisting of training and research.

For the next five years, Coppin is to receive approximately $284,000.

The Biomedical Program is a comprehensive program consisting of research and training of students in research techniques.

The training component will be implemented by members of the Biology.

Liquor Board Says Black Owner 'Front Man' At 'Block' Bar

111,600 Sickle Cell Grant To Provident

(SEE PAGE A-8)

Baltimore Afro American

66,101 Families Read The AFRO Last Week LATE CITY EDITION

Clean Block Contest, Entry Blank For You

(SEE PAGE A-3)

80th Year, No. 90

Copyright 1972 by the AFRO-AMERICAN Co. for all material previously printed in the current National Edition.

BALTIMORE, MD., JUNE 24, 1972 PUBLISHED TUESDAY and FRIDAY 48 PAGES 20 CENTS ONE YEAR $8.50