Angels get Motton, former Oriole star

ANAHEIM — The California Angels have purchased the contract of outfielder Curt Motton from their Salt Lake City farm club of the Pacific Coast League, optioning pitcher Alan Foster to Salt Lake.

Motton, 31, was hitting .283 at Salt Lake with five home runs. He was acquired by the Angels May 25 from the Milwaukee Brewers for pitcher Archie Reynolds. Curt played with the AL champion Orioles in 1969-70-71.

Birdseed . . .

After the same number of playing dates, the Orioles have drawn nearly 122,000 more on the road than they have in Memorial Stadium (thru Sunday), but that picture should change this weekend when the Birds return from a two-week road trip to take on the Tigers Friday night (7:30), Saturday night (7:00), and Sunday afternoon in a continuing battle for first place in the American League East between Earl Weaver's Birds and Billy Martin's Bengals.

To date the Orioles have drawn 297,933 at home and 419,798 on the road.

Incidentally, the ticket situation for the weekend is as follows: there are still approximately 6,000 upper reserved seats available for Friday, and box seats plus both upper and lower reserved seats can still be purchased for Saturday and Sunday.

In addition, some 20,000 general admission and bleacher tickets will go on sale just two hours before each of the three games.

Baseball vs. Drugs Film Available Free for Groups: A new 26-minute color film entitled Baseball vs. Drugs is now available free of charge for group bookings through the Orioles office. This 16 mm film featuring the Dodgers' Wes Parker, Boston's Reggie Smith and former Oriole Pete Richert, along with other major league representatives, physicians and trainers, illustrates facts and fallacies about drug use in general and its relation to the athlete in particular.

Baseball vs. Drugs is just one of many films that can be reserved by calling the Orioles' public relations office at 243-9800.

MOSHER MANAGING—Young Curtis Winn (right) of the Tigers, receives last-minute instructions from manager Leon Barrett prior to pitching his team to a 5-2 victory over the Yankees. The Tigers and Yankees are members of the James Mosher Little League, which plays daily except Sundays, at School 144, Mosher and Wheeler.
