South Baltimore Notes

By WALTER W. E. HILL

Star of Bethlehem A.M.E. Church, 2925 Ridgely St., Mt. Winans, is one of the old structures putting on a New Face to cope with the future atmosphere of the neighborhood.

Not only is this rejuvenation being done on the outside, which once was a wooden structure dressed up with white shingles but now is fully brick, its inside is now in the process of rejuvenation.

Major Wallace (Mary E.), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Wallace of Huron St. recently completed requirements for a master's degree in educational psychology at Howard University.

She received her B.S. degree from Wayne State University.

Miss Wallace has returned to active duty and is currently assigned as an instructor at the U.S. Women's Army Corps school in Ft. McClellan Alabama.

The officer's mother Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace and aunt, Mrs. Hattie Burley, motored to Alabama with the graduate.

During their stay they visited the grave site of Martin Luther King in Atlanta. After visiting for a few days, Mrs. Burley and Mrs. Wallace flew back to Baltimore.

Prior to leaving Baltimore for Alabama, Major a surprise party given by her sisters Mrs. Sharon W. Wallace was honored with Coldough, and Misses Harietta and Lucinda Wallace, and her cousins, Mrs. Hattie Faulk, Mrs. Marjorie Flowers, and Mrs. Hazel Parks.

Congratulations to the graduates, Miss Yasmin Harris (Western), Gary Parker (Poly) and Miss Jennifer Delois Spencer (Community College).

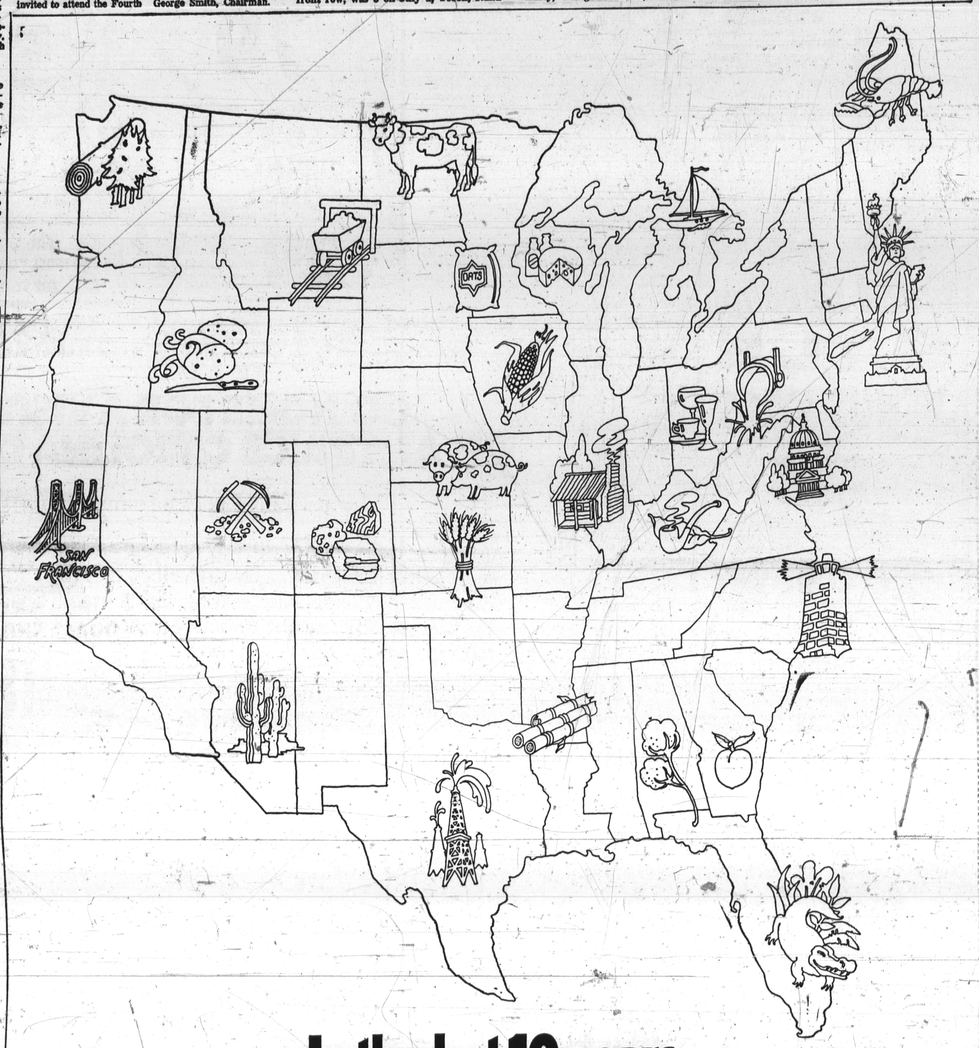
The Sarah O'Collins Guild of Mt. Winans United Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Blanche Powell, of Lynchester Road, last Tuesday.

It was the closing meeting of the guild before merging with the Women's Society of Christian Service. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Ester Jackson, former chairman of the Baltimore conference Wesleyan Service Guilds, and Mrs. Lassiter, chairman of the South West District Wesleyan Service Guilds.

Women's Society members present were: Mesdames Bessie Malloy, president; Sadie Blocker, Veneta Butler, Gertrude M. Parker, and Bernice Lee who is president of the guild.



In the last 10 years, we brought San Francisco $1.05 closer.

Ever since we invented it, Long Distance has always been the fastest way of getting there from here.

The cheapest, too. Ten years ago, a station-to-station call, direct to San Francisco from Baltimore, on a weekend, cost only $1.75. Not much. But we thought we could do better.

Ten years later, we're proud to say that same phone call dialed direct costs as little as 70¢.*

That's a $1.05 improvement.

People need to talk to each other. C&P people help.

C&P Telephone

*The dial-direct rate is for a three-minute call made on the weekends from 8 a.m. Saturday to 5 p.m. Sunday. Dial-direct rates do not apply to person-to-person, coin, hotel guest, credit card, and collect calls, and on calls charged to another number. All rates plus tax.
