—Five hanged

work without pay after a Wednesday. He was put off two-day hearing during which the officers' union claimed the warden made racial slurs in a negotiations session.

Deputy Parks is in charge of the jail in the warden's absence.

Each of the six plaintiffs seeks a $10,000 judgement and $50,000 punitive damages against the warden and his deputy.

The plaintiffs described in the suit four similar instances of an alleged inmate "hanging." All the plaintiffs were in "K" or the Juvenile Section when they claim they were tortured.

According to the suit filed by Legal Aid, on or about Oct. 24, 1969, plaintiffs Oliver, Wise and Witherspoon were led from their cells for apparently making noise.

The suit reads: "The inmates were taken to a large hallway where they were ordered to remove their clothes. The inmates did so and were confined in a small closet where supplies were kept.

"Soon after their initial confinement in the closet, the door was opened and mace was sprayed upon the three inmates . . .

"Sometime later, Bennie Witherspoon was taken from the closet into the hallway where some furniture had been arranged in pyramid fashion. (He) was made to climb up onto a chair and ordered to turn so his back faced the iron grading . . .

"A guard . . . handcuffed both his hands together from behind and attached them to the grille. The furniture was then removed leaving Witherspoon hanging with his hands above and behind his head and his feet off the ground . . .

"While he was hanging one of the officers present put a lighted cigarette near his feet causing him to jerk his body up and down."

At the Board of Estimates, the City Solicitor mentioned certain defendants added the Law Department to provide their legal counsel, but he declined saying a conflict of interest may develop in the case.

Mr. Russell later told the AFRO a conflict of interest could arise if the officers claim they performed the alleged brutalities under the direction of their superiors.

Another possible conflict, Mr. Russell explained, would be, if defendants lost this federal court civil suit, they would be subject to disciplinary action prosecuted by the city.

Certain defendants then asked the City Solicitor to pay for their legal fees and any damages that may be assessed.

Mr. Russell partly complied, asking the Board to allot $2,000 to each defendant but added the city "would not be responsible for the payment of any damages."

As to the suit, the plaintiffs are: Rosell Oliver, 20, at the Maryland Correctional Training Center; Dorian Wise, 19, 1800 block Druid Hill Ave. and Bennie Witherspoon Jr., 22, at the Patuxent Institute.

The others are: James Palmer, 20, at the Training Center; Jeffery Johnson, 19, at Maryland Correctional Institute and Jackie Jackson, 19, 2800 block W. Garrison Ave.

The five officers charged are: Earnest R. Barboza, Donald H. Brogden, B. O. McCutcheon, Andrew Stilchalk and Albert T. Yoor.

Besides damages, the suit seeks injunctive relief.

It asks the "presiding judge (Judge Frank A. Kaufman) to forbid "handcuffing of inmates with their feet off the ground or any similar brutalization," "unnecessary and unprovoked use of mace or tear gas" and "the beating or physical assault of inmates."

The suit also asks the court to order the defendants to devise inmate grievance procedures to inmates can "directly and privately communicate uncensored complaints" to the Jail Board and create a complaint review body independent of the jail administration.

By the way...

by Joe Black

If our Black communities have realistic plans to improve living conditions, one thing is perhaps more important than anything else.

Our Black communities need to grow.

By growing, I don't mean in population. Or in area. Or in new building stores. Our communities must begin to grow, economically.

The reason for economic growth is simple. We must establish and attract business to our communities.

But, to attract new business, we are faced with some nasty, old business we have to take care of first.

The business of curbing crime in our communities.

We must all begin to give greater respect to law and order, and stop remaining silent when we see it being broken. We must stop excusing Black crime, and turning our eyes away from it when we see it happening.

Black robbing, and extorting from Black business is not beautiful. We need to weed out that insidious element from our neighborhoods, soon. We have to stand together and stamp out the parasites who call us brother to our faces, then rob us blind when our backs are turned.

I simply can't believe that Black crime is the result of years of deprivation and oppression. If so, why aren't we all stealing and killing?

Let us stand strong against crime. All of us. When we do, we will make our neighborhoods far more attractive to business. Which, in turn, will create more jobs. And reduce insurance rates. And add millions of dollars to our spendable income.

Consider for a moment: Can crime do as much for all of us?

In Memory

BURNETTE — In memory of LEROY BURNETTE, who passed away August 10, 1970:
LEROY
No matter where we go
You'll be within our hearts
Dear One
Because we love you so.
Your Loving Wife and FAMILY, SHIRLEY, MARTHA and GRANDCHILDREN

COVINGTON SR. — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, ALBERT GEORGE, who passed away August 14, 1969:
We walked together, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy.
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love
For thru the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky—
For all eternity.
Wife, BEATRICE
Sons: GEORGE JR. and BOOKER W.
Daughter: MRS. ANNIE SMITH and Counsins: ANNIE RUTH JONES, CARRIE KEARNEY

CLERKLEY — In loving memory of my beloved husband and our father, MACEO CLERKLEY SR., who departed this life August 16, 1967:
Your memory to us is a keepsake
With which we'll never part
Tho God has you in his keeping
We'll always have you in our hearts
BEATRICE L. CLERKLEY, Wife
MACEO C. CLERKLEY JR., Son
YVONNE L. BUTLER, Daughter

GORDON — A tribute of love to the memory of our beloved brother, GEORGE H., who passed away August 8, 1969:
Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place.
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us three years ago.
Loving Sisters and Brothers, MARIE G. WIGGINS-FLORENCE G. KESSLER, HARVEY E. GORDON SR. LOUISE E. GORDON SR.

HALL — In loving memory of my dear husband, EDWARD (EDDIE BOY) HALL, who passed away August 9, 1957:
Gone, but not forgotten
Loving Wife — BERNETTA

LOCUST — In loving memory of our dear daughter and our sister, NANNIE S. LOCUST, who departed this life August 8th, 1971:
Our lips cannot tell how we miss her,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how we miss her
In a home that is lonesome today.
Loving Mother and Father, HELEN J. and JOHN R. LOCUST SR.
Brothers-JOHN R. LOCUST JR. and IRVIN LOCUST SR.

LOUDEN — In memory of my dear son and our loved one, ALEXANDER LOUDEN, who passed away August 10, 1965:
Before the throne of God
Thousands of children stand,
Children whose sins are all forgiven,
A Holy, Happy land.
Up there among the throne
Our little child stands,
Waiting for us to join him
In that Holy, Happy land.
MOTHER, FATHER BROTHERS and FAMILY.

TALBOTT — In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, EDNA E. who passed away August 9th, 1966:
We are sad with our memory,
And lonely, this day,
For the one loved so dearly
Has forever been called away.
We think of her in silence,
No eye may see us weep.
But many silent tears are shed,
When others are asleep.
With Love-WILLIAM H. TALBOTT, LUCILLE T. WILLIAMS, CAROL W. SCOTT and JOANNE W. CROMWELL

In Memoriam

OWENS — In loving memory of my dear wife, HAZEL M. OWENS; it has been five long years since you departed this life, which seems like only yesterday.
We shared together, you and I,
We shared our pains and happiness,
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love
For thru the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky—
For all eternity.
Loving Husband-HARRISON W. OWENS

SMITH — In loving memory of my dear mother, BESSIE E., who passed away August 12, 1966:
Today my heart is heavy, My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh how I miss you, mother dear,
None but God in Heaven can see
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But no, that isn't true,
For three long years have passed, my dear
And my heart still aches for you.
Devoted Daughter, MILDRED PALMER

JOIN A COMPANY THAT CAN PROVIDE YOU WITH THE OPPORTUNITY TO MOVE AHEAD.

If you are a Financial Specialist, a Programmer with On-Line Terminals experience, an Electrical Design Engineer or Industrial Engineer; you will want to read the ads below and call our representative while he is in Baltimore, Maryland.

FINANCIAL SPECIALIST
If you have the track record to qualify and are an aggressive and versatile individual with the appropriate degree plus 2-5 years experience in financial areas, we can provide you with an opportunity to use these skills and move ahead.

Present openings exist in AUDITING, PRICING, PLANNING & ANALYSIS, FINANCE, BUDGETING, ESTIMATING and FORECASTING.

PROGRAMMERS
(On-Line Terminals)
The continued growth of our Financial Terminal Engineering Department has created a need for several Applications Programmers to design firmware microprograms for on-line terminals.

These individuals would take functional definition of requirements and code and debug firmware microprograms. Also, you would be checking out the programs on a prototype terminal, documenting and designing with flow charts and design description.

Minimum requirement for these positions is two years experience in machine language programming. We would prefer that you have programming experience in minicomputers. The individuals should have a BS degree in Math or Computer Science along with the appropriate experience.

ELECTRICAL DESIGN ENGINEERS
Electrical Design Engineers with a background in either computer logic and circuit design or software development for testing LSI PC assemblies. Minimal requirement is an BSEE plus related experience.

INDUSTRIAL ENGINEER
If you have your degree, an innovative mind and are looking for an interesting and challenging opportunity, then we may have just the position you are looking for in the NCR organization.

The duties of these positions would include the development and maintenance of efficient manufacturing methods for all aspects of plant operation; the analysis and recommendation of solutions to warehouse/distribution needs; and the participation (from an IE standpoint) in the development of new facilities and equipment.
