Mr. and Mrs. Chase spent honeymoon in the Poconos

Mr. and Mrs. Lee David Chase spent their honeymoon trip in the Poconos Mountains after their June 24 wedding.

The former Miss Celestina B. Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Jones of Kossuth St., exchanged vows with Mr. Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Chase of Brandywine, Md., at Union Memorial United Methodist Church. The Rev. N. B. Carrington officiated, the ceremony.

Elegant in white organza — a trailing-length veil adorned with a mantilla headpiece — complimented her wedding outfit. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pompoms with stephanotis.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Gwendolyn P. Jones, sister of the bride, was gowned in blue jersey knit. She carried a cascade bouquet similar to her sister's, except her flowers were blue and white.

The bridesmaids were also in blue jersey and carried blue and white carnation nosegays. They were Misses Gloria Green, Naomi Jenkins, Rhessa Smith, Shirley Wilkins, Corlotta M. Hardmon of Washington, D.C.; and Mrs. Ruby Jean Downings of Woonsocket, R.I.

Kenneth Farror served as best man. Ushers were Sgt. Festus Jones II, brother of the bride; Roland Chase, brother of the bridegroom; Stuart Jones, Kermit Moore, cousin of the bridegroom; Willie Joyne, and Ronald Owens.

Little Lenora H. Jones, niece of the bridegroom, wore white organza and carried the traditional basket of flowers which were in blue and white. Brian Hitchcock, cousin of the bride, was the ringbearer.

Mrs. Jones, mother of the bride, was beautifully gowned in aqua with a beaded pearl bodice. Mrs. Chase, mother of the bridegroom, chose a lovely brocade gown in green with chiffon sleeves.

A reception followed at the Forest Manor.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Cleora Coleman, grandmother of the bride, Woonsocket, R.I. and family members and friends from Brandywine, Md. and Washington, D.C.

Three pre-nuptial events were held for the new Mrs. Chase. Mrs. Jennifer Hitchcock and Miss Jewel Jones, cousin of the bride and aunt of the bridegroom, honored her with a miscellaneous shower, followed by kitchen and bathroom showers, hosted by the bridesmaids and members of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. The faculty of School No. 48 gave her a personal shower.

The couple is enjoying their new home in Baltimore County.

IMPROVING IS AFRO women's editor, Mrs. Lula Mackey. Cards and messages may be sent to her at North Arundal Hospital, Room 218-B, 301 Hospital Drive, Glen Burnie, Md.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON THE EAST SIDE

Mrs. Ora Jones good neighbor of the week

By GEORGIANNA MOODY

Mrs. Ora Jones, a very lovable talented young woman who has devoted the larger part of her life teaching, directing and training young girls and boys to choose the high ways of life, says 'children are lovely angels."

Mrs. Jones, began in her early teens gathering children around her steps where she taught them to read, write and recite poetry. She also counseled them to attend school and Sunday School. Teaching children to show respect and kindness to mankind is part of Mrs. Jones' daily task.

She is a Sunday School teacher at Timothy Baptist Church where children respect her as a mother. She has never been known to criticize the younger set, she says children are in more need of a model than of a critic.

Mrs. Jones writes poetry and directs a number of youth groups in the city. She is a former resident of the Douglass Homes and now lives in the Gilmore Homes, where she works faithfully with the Resident Council.

She does a variety of community services directing and devoting unending time to building character in children.

Mrs. Rev. Cleophia Walker a long-standing member of Faith Bapt. Church died Sunday Aug. 6th at his home 1807 Caroline St. Funeral services were today at Faith Baptist Church.
