Students at School 118 enjoy summer activities

During the Summer School session at School No. 118, the activities: Indian Day, Dogpatch Day, Title I Day, Punch and Cookie Day, and Prize and Candy Day.

On the many trips, parents as accompanied the children to such places as Flag House, United Fruit Co., Clyburn Park, National Capital Trolley Museum and Columbia Pet Shop. Operation Champ was also an activity enjoyed by the children.

In our Cultural events Mr. Robert Smith, Mr. Robert Spangler, Ms. Mary Carter Smith, Ms. Bonnie Blake and Miss Finnigan were featured artists and performers.

Towards the end of the summer, School 118 held a Black Cultural Program at Sharp St. Church. All the children participated. Invited guests were Mrs. Lynn and her Summer Fun Camp located at Harlem Park Recreation Center. Parents were present at event as they were at all other events.

The staff and other personnel involved were as follows: Mrs. Virginia Scott, Mr. [illegible] Dorsey, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Mattie Riddick, Miss Mildred Jordon, Mrs. Mattie Redding, William Walker, Mrs. Wanda Matthews, Mrs. Annette Miles, Mrs. Annie Wilson, Mrs. Patricia Lanney and Mrs. Betty Harris. Mrs. Annie Phillips as a volunteer parent worked all summer at School 118 and also contributed music used in the Black Cultural program. Mrs. Phillips also obtained lemonade through the generous donation of J. J. Brill Co. on Pennsylvania Ave. Mrs. Gertrude Faber was the Summer School Principal at 118.
