

LOUIS L. GOLDSTEIN

Comptroller of the Treasury

Louis L. Goldstein was born in Prince Frederick, March 14, 1913. He was educated in Baltimore City and Calvert County public schools, Washington College, Chestertown, Maryland (B.S., 1935), and the University of Maryland School of Law (J.D., 1938). From 1937 to 1942 he was an elected delegate from Calvert County to the Maryland General Assembly. In 1942 he enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps as a private and was discharged in 1946 as a first lieutenant after service in the Asiatic and Pacific theatres.

From 1947 through 1958 Mr. Goldstein was an elected State Senator from Calvert County, and during this time he was Majority Leader (1951-1955) and President of the Senate (1955-1958). He was a member of the Legislative Council (1947-1958) and served as its Chairperson between 1955 and 1958. In 1958 he was elected Comptroller of the Treasury; he was reelected in 1962, 1966, 1970, 1974, and 1978.

Mr. Goldstein is married to the former Hazel E. Horton and has three children, Philip, Louisa, and Margaret Senate. They reside at Oakland Hall, Prince Frederick, Maryland.

He and his wife have shared a legal practice in Prince Frederick. He also operates several farms.

He is active in veterans, charitable, and civic organizations. He served as the President of the National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers for 1969. He is Chairperson of the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College. He has also served as a delegate or alternate to ten Democratic National Conventions, and was a member of the Platform and Resolutions Committee at the 1964, 1968, 1972, and 1976 conventions.

Morgan State University, Western Maryland College, Washington College, and the University of Baltimore have each awarded Mr. Goldstein honorary doctorate degrees, and he has received the President's Medal from Mt. St. Mary's College as well as additional awards for his interest in education, historic preservation, promotion of tourism, outstanding management, and conservation.

STEPHEN H. SACHS

Attorney General

Stephen H. Sachs was born in Baltimore on January 31, 1934. He attended Baltimore City public schools, graduating from Friends School in 1950. He received a B.A. degree from Haverford College in 1954, won a Fulbright Scholarship to Oxford University, and spent two years as an enlisted man in the U.S. Army before graduating from Yale Law School in 1960.