Patrolman Banks new P. D. member

Lt. Col. William Harris, Chief of the Traffic Division, Baltimore Police Department introduced new Patrolman Raynond E. Banks on Thursday to Major Lon F. Rowlett, Director of Personnel of the Department.

Mr. Banks was recruited by Col. Harris, who is a long time friend of the new patrolman's father, Earl Banks, the distinguished head football Coach at Morgan State University.

Patrolman Banks is a 1969 graduate of Maryland State University, Princess Anne, Maryland, where he was an outstanding athlete and considered to be professional type material, however, he chose to teach in the Baltimore City Public School system following his graduation.

Patrolman Banks will begin entrance-level training at the Education and Training Division on Aug. 28, with a class of 35 patrolmen who have joined the Department since the hiring freeze was lifted for policeman by the Mayor on Aug.9

Mt. Vernon Place training center stays

The Zoning Appeal Board ruled Wednesday that the Training Research Development Institute, a training center for 120 female welfare recipients, can remain at its 3 W. Mt. Vernon Place location.

Two residents in the Mt. Vernon area appealed to the board Tuesday, to order the school closed so the building could be restored to residential use.

The training center is located in the building which was the Eastern College of Commerce for the past 20 years and had previously been an office building.

Among the 75 persons attending the hearing were State Sen. Robert Dolton and City Councilman Clarence "Du" Burns.

Cojcilman Burns told the AFRO Wednesday they have made no arrest in the $12,000 robbery of the Quilles in their home Aug. 10.

Police records reveal three white males rang the door bell of the Bear Hill residence of the parking lot owner, Allen Quille, 53, and his wife, Rebecca, 51.

At gunpoint, police said, the bandits forced their way into the residence, led the couple to the basement and fastened their hands to a water pipe with handcuffs.

The suspects then ransacked the house and took away $6,000 in cash and the balance in jewelry, police claim.

They did not want it at the 3 W. Mt. Vernon location.

Comparing the traing center to drug rehabilitation centers, one board member said, 'Everybody agrees it's a good thing, but that it should be somewhere else."

The board unanimously agreed that the school qualifies for the location under the zoning ordinance.

No arrest in $12,000 holdup

Baltimore County police told AFRO Wednesday they have made no arrest in the $12,000 robbery of the Quilles in their home Aug. 10.

Police records reveal three white males rang the door bell of the Bear Hill residence of the parking lot owner, Allen Quille, 53, and his wife, Rebecca, 51.

At gunpoint, police said, the bandits forced their way into the residence, led the couple to the basement and fastened their hands to a water pipe with handcuffs.

By the way...

by Joe Black

There's an important, fourteen letter word in our language today that too many of us tend to overlook. A word that some of us even seem to forget.

The word isn't necessarily Black jargon. Nor, even exclusively created for Black usage. But it is a word that applies to all of us. And one we should never forget.

What's the word? Responsibility. Your and my responsibility to today's and tomorrow's society.

During the trials and troubles of today, too often too many of us tend to back and let someone else do all out talking for us. (It's understandable why.) But too often, the people who we let talk are merely seeking popularity through the manipulations of emotions. People who spend all their time shouting racism and hatred.

You know them. Sure you do. People who would just as soon shoot off some heads, while they're shooting off their mouths. People who, in the long run, could be leading us all down the road to nowhere. And, incidentally, perhaps getting a little rich along the way, too.

I don't know about you, but I for one am mighty tired of living in a society that, instead of being filled with love, and brotherhood, and cool heads, and understanding, seems more abundant in hate, and tension, and greed, and jealousy.

What can we do? Well, that's where the word responsibility comes in. As Malcolm X once said, "If you don't think for yourself, if you don't see for yourself, then you will end up hating your friends, and loving your enemies."

Do you want to be responsible for something like that happening? I doubt it. But the question then remains: do you want to be responsible for something better happening?

I think we all do.
