On Interstate moves, the mover must notify you as soon as he realizes he will not be able to pick up or deliver on time. False information can cost him a fine of up to $5,000.

Schedule leeway both at the beginning and end of a household moving trip. To be on the safe side, ask movers to come well before the date your old home must be vacated.

Included in the hour-long program (James Byrd, a close friend and co-worker presided) were salutations which came from Mr. Byrd, John Turner, Mrs. Evelyn McGee, Bob Rector, Mrs. Dixon for the Rev. Eddy R. Wilson, pastor of Leadenhall, who was unable to attend: Mrs. Louise Booze, Mrs. Ida Brown, Miss Mary Ripple, Herman Anshueta and Mrs. Milly R. Wilkins.

Among gifts showered on the honoree were a white gold diamond watch from C and P; $300 from the Willing Workers and a lifetime membership in the Pioneers of America Club, an organization of retired telephone company workers.

Here are excerpts from "A Tribute To A Lady," written and read by a close friend, Thomas E. Williams, and a highlight of the evening:

"Although your station was not near the top.
It did not cause your countenance to drop;
And you have proved that
from a modest place, It's possible to help the human race.
"And so, tonight, we all extend to you;
As you retire to something that is new;
Our fondest wishes; they are sent your way;
May you find peace and hapoiness, we pray!"

More visitors in Baltimore this week: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young (Rebecca Murphy), and their daughter, Mrs. James Bruce (Gracie), and their sons, James Jr. and Jason, all of Chicago, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murphy (Louise).

Highlight of Mrs. Young's tour was a surprise visit to the District Court where her brother, Judge William H. Murphy Jr., presides and a visit with her uncle, 92-year-old John H. Murphy Jr.

They stopped in Wilmington, Del., with his sister, Miss Pauline Young, before wending their way back to the Windy City.

Good news Provident Hospital. The Helen Fuld School of Nursing has received continued accreditation from the National League for Nursing of its program in nursing for a period of six years. This action was taken at a recent meeting of the Board of Review for Diploma Programs.

Evaluation centered on determining from the school's report of self-evaluation, the school's catalog and a report from a visiting team the extent to which the criteria for the evaluation of diploma programs in nursing have been achieved and implemented.

The name of the Helene Fuld School of Nursing of Provident Hospital, Inc. will continue to appear on the official list of institutions offering NLN-accredited diploma programs in nursing published in Nursing Outlook.

The board of review commended all those who addressed themselves to the ever-present responsibility of improving the educational offerings of the school and who thereby contributed notably to the continuation of NLN accreditation of the diploma program in nursing.

The Nurses Residence maintains facilities for 85 students.

Miss Catherine Taylor is associate dean of the Helene Fuld School of Nursing of Provident Hospital. Mrs. Vercine Randolph is Secretary-Registrar.

One of the country's leading female economists, Dr. Irma Adelman, will join the faculty at the University of Maryland, College Park Campus, this fall.

Mrs. Adelman is a senior economist at the Development Research Center of the World Bank and has written several books and numerous articles, including The Dynamic Properties of the Klein-Goldberger Model," which she co-authored with her husband, physicist, Frank L. Adelman. It is based on their joint efforts in analyzing a model of the U.S. Economy with the aid of a computer.

Visitors in our gates this week, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Henrndon (Willa) of Kansas City, Mo., who have been houseguests of the James Murphys (Yvette).

Their host entertained at cocktails for them on Friday evening. On Saturday, Dr. and Mrs. Ted Phifer had friends in to meet them, and they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams at Arundel-On-The-Bay and saw the Alvin Alyer Dancers at the Wolf Trap Dinner theatre.

They took time off earlier this week to visit in Atlantic City, will leave for home this weekend.
