Community College Board of Trustees: Consists of seven members appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for six-year terms except in Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Frederick, Harford, Montgomery, and Prince George's counties, and Baltimore City. In Anne Arundel County the Board has eight members, including a student member who serves for one year. In Baltimore City the Board is appointed by the Mayor and City Council. In Baltimore County there is a nine-member board, eight members of which each represent a different legislative district, and one member of which represents the county at large. In Frederick County Board members serve five-year terms. In Harford County five of the seven members are appointed by the Governor for five-year terms and two members are appointed by the Harford County Board of Education from among its members for one-year terms. In Montgomery and Prince George's counties there are eight-member boards both of which include a student member who serves for one year. In Montgomery County members, except for the student member, are appointed with the advice and consent of the Senate. In Prince George's County the student member is elected by the community college student body (Code Education Article, secs. 16-201, 16-501 through 16-514).

Board of Library Trustees: Consists of seven members who serve five-year terms and may not serve for more than two consecutive terms. In Montgomery County the Library Board is appointed by the County Executive with County Council approval for six-year overlapping terms; in Anne Arundel and Wicomico counties the Board itself makes appointments for three-year overlapping terms, and in Talbot County for four-year terms. In Queen Anne's County the Library Corporation elects the Board for six-year terms from its own membership, which consists of those who have contributed one dollar or more to the Library Corporation during the preceding year. In Washington County the Board is self-perpetuating and the terms are for life or until resignation (Education Article, secs. 23-301 through 23-303).

Librarian (or Library Director): Appointed by the Board of Library Trustees, except in Montgomery County where the County Executive makes the appointment upon the recommendation of the Library Board and with the consent of the County Council (Code 1957, Art. 77, sec. 174).

Social Services Board: Consists of nine members appointed by the governing body of the County for three-year terms. One member must be a member of the governing body of the county (Code 1957, Art. 88A, sec. 14).

Director of Social Services: Appointed by the County Social Services Board (Code 1957, Art. 88A, sec. 14A).

Commission on the Aging: Appointed by the governing body in each county for indefinite terms (Code 1957, Art. 70B).

Children's Council: Appointed by the chief executive officer of each county and Baltimore City as per Chapter 426, Acts of 1978. The Children's Councils are a part of the Maryland Office for Children and Youth (Code 1957, Art. 49D, sec. 4).

Foster Care Review Board: Composed of five members and two alternates appointed by the Governor from residents of the county. Board members serve four-year terms without compensation. They are citizens who have demonstrated an interest in children, through community service or professional experience, or who have a background in law, sociology, psychology, education, social work, or medicine. Board members are subject to the same standards of confidentiality as Social Services Administration employees. The Board elects its own chairperson from among its number for a four-year term (Code 1957, Art. 88A, sec. 116).

Disabled Persons Review Board: Consists of nine members appointed by the County Commissioners. In Baltimore City and the charter counties, the Board is chosen by the Mayor or County Executive with the advice and consent of the City or County Council. Members serve three-year terms (Code 1957, Art. 88A, sec. 110).

Planning and Zoning Commission: Consists of five to seven members, including one member of the governing body of the county who serves ex officio. Members are appointed by the local legislative body or by the County Executive. The term of the ex officio member corresponds to his term of office on the county governing body. The remaining members serve five-year terms. In Allegany County the Commission consists of seven members who serve five-year terms (Code 1957, Art. 66B, sec. 3.02).
