Lights due at last in Mt. Winans

By WALTER W. E. HILL

The C.I.G. of Mt. Winans and the Recreation Department of P.S. No. 156 have won their battle.

The organizations have been requesting the installation of lights on the playground basketball area and have received word from the recreation director, Douglass S. Fawney, stating that permission and funds have been granted by a Special Ordinance passed by City Council.

Two 30-foot poles equipped with 250-watt mercury vapor lights with clock activator will be installed.

Garfield Handcock is now convalescing at his home, 2215 Wicomico St., after a stay of ten months at Fort Howard Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Handcock observed their fifty-second wedding anniversary on August 9.

We are asking the entire support of these communities by purchasing tickets selling for $1 each.

Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Walter W. E. Hill Jr. took a surprise honeymoon trip to Canada. Open house date will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Bell's announce the marriage of their daughter, Gwendolyn Madie, to Mr. Craig Edward Wright.

The officers and members of the Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group Inc., have been seeking ways to have the Westport Community, which was formerly Mt. Winans, to join forces and work together.

The C.I.G. has been participating and working in meetings and on its committees trying to bring about a closer relationship yet, our efforts have been in vain.

A possible solution — it takes an honest togetherness from both areas to make it a reality.

On September 3, at 2:30 p.m. the Young Adult Choir of Central Baptist Church will give a musical program for the benefit of Men's Day at Lewin United Methodist Church at 4844 Reisterstown Rd. formerly the South Baltimore United Methodist Church.

The program is sponsored by Melvin Scott. Minister is the Rev. Paul P. Johnson.

The Church's Recreation Department is asking all boys 15 years and under interested in baseball and fall basketball, to sign up at the church with Mr. Scott after morning services.

Thanks are due Tom Davis and Mrs. Constance White for their hard work with the Mt. Winans C.I.G. in their great struggle to have Mt. Winans rise from a "forgotten community."

Housing Community Development has experienced many changes during our past six years of struggle and in these changes, Mrs. White was relocated and Mrs. LaVerne Brooks was sent to us.

Mr. Davis says ground breaking for new homes is slated to start this fall, hopefully in September.

New York City Gives Youth Corpsmen A Thrill

N.Y.C. IN N.Y.C.—Everyhere Neighborhood Youth Corps members went in New York City there was another adventure. Miss Kristina Whentley, (top left) obviously was having a good time, Mrs. Brenda Fleet and Miss Karen Jackson were doing what everyone does in N.Y.C., looking up at the skyscrapers. Enoch Richardson leans over to touch a sculpture in Lincoln Center. While Miss Deborah Hall's smile could light up Broadway.

(SEE STORIES ON PAGE D-10)

ADMIRING MISS LIBERTY—Hilred Watts enjoys the calm and coolness of New York harbor, the world's busiest port. He and other Youth Corps travellers saw the harbor by the best means, riding Staten Island Ferry. Needless to say, most of the youngsters were awed at the beauty of the Statue of Liberty.

RIDING THE RAILS—The Amtrak train trip to and from New York City was exciting in itself. The clean, shiny new passenger cars sped between here and there under three hours.

When the Jersey countryside seemed tiring during the return trip, the comfortable seats proved just right for napping.

SKYLINE OF NEW YORK—Millions of people have marvelled at the doens of skyscrapers that rise majestiely from the tip of Manhatten, and the 400 Youth Corps members who journeyed to New York last week were no exceptiion, including Miss Yvonne Diggs and Miss Jotte Queen.
