WILD! Sheila Frazier and Ron O'Neal share the luxury of a bubble bath in a scene from "Superfly" coming Warner Bros. release. The $18,000. Eldorado driven in this film will visit the Baltimore AFRO next Wednesday. Nate Adams who also stars wyill be at wheel. He's from Columbia, Md.

CALVIN LOCKHART, the swinging disc-jockey, Frankie J. Parker takes Melinda (Vonetta McGee) to Post Office in this action suspense drama coming soon to area theatres. It was produced by Rams football star Atkins from a screenplay by Lonne Elder, III.

IDA PINKNEY

Mayor Schaefer's special assistant presented John Beckis (Dizzy) Gillespie with a special citation of a silver plate, a Proclamation for Dizzy Gillespie week and made him an Honorary Citizen of Baltimore.

Dizzy replied, "does this mean I don't get busted?" which cracked the audience.

He remembers Baltimore as the Siberia of show business . . 'cause at the old

WHAT'S HAPPENING

BY IDA M. PETERS

DIZZY GILLESPIE TONIGHT

Tonight (Friday) the Jazzmobile of NYC featuring Dizzy Gillespie and his Quintet will conclude concert series at Druid Hill and Fulton Avenue at 7:30 p.m.

The entire series this past week at Cherry Hill Madison Square Park, P. S. 95, Lombard Junior High was sponsored by the National Brewing Company.

National Bohn hosted a luncheon on Tuesday at the Elgin Cafe on N. Monroe St. Special guests were co-hosts from the Bureau of Recreation, Community Action Agency, Model Cities and Operation Champ.

Jack Goldenberg of W.B. Doner introduced Dizzy Gillespie by telling a joke on National Boh's Bill Costello . . who while reading about Dizzy in Downbeat . . . (Dizzy said the man he admired most in 1953 interview was Martin Luther King) and Bill wanted to know . . "I wonder what he plays?"

Incidentally for those present . . . the large group on the other side of the room was a surprise shower and farewell by CEP staffers under Fred Nims and Reid Vogelhirt and Bill Clarke, Director of Manpower services who were saluting Mrs. Helena Edumunds. She goes to new with Model Ex-Offenders Program.

-What's happening

Royal Theatre you could expect anything . . "like cabbage thrown at you."

He credits Left Bank Jazz Society and the Jazzmobile to change all this. Musicians love to come to Baltimore now . . ." but man in the past."

He says Left Bank introduced them to the National Brewing Co., the Mayors office and all the community groups. He's glad they are willing to put something back into the community.

Dizzy has just finished a symposium on trumpet at the University of Denver. He lectured, built band and had a panel discussions.

He told about his conversion to the Bahai faith and while in town held a special concert for them in Hopkins Plaza.

On his agenda, he will be teaching at Yale, School of Music. He has an honorary Doctorate from Rutgers . . . where Paul Robeson was famous. He told us . . . "people don't know . . he was the first black incorruptable man . . . you couldn't get to him." He said he admires him most in the world.

CORNER THEATRE

Ida Wilson Pinkey's play, 'Trees of Eden" is playing tonight and Saturday at 9 p.m. at Corner Theatre on Howard St.

She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wilson of White Haven, Md. Her sister, Mrs. Mildred Harrinday is a Reading Specialist in Baltimore and another, Mrs. Helen Daniel, teaches art in Durham, N.C.

This is her first black play presented at Corner Theatre with an independent semi-professional group.

The cast includes Princeton McClure, Judith Rowe, Geri Hart, Rick Cesaro, John Tuggle, Ben Prestberry, Joy Ava Pinkney.

Also Erik Presberry, Cathleen Dennis, Pastor Wilbert Cole, Florence Cole, Mary Lewis, Barbara Jordon, Christine Wilson, Nina Twitty, Minnie White Rev. Ernest Lewis and Rubin Smith.

The Dance Company includes Nancy Boskoff, Pamela Story, Debbie Loftus, Angie Sharp, Phyllis Farrare, Jim Reynolds, Bonnye Posner and Rene Ford.

Director is Gerald Thompson, a young genius Miss Pinkney taught in Upper Marlboro, Md. His father was night club star in the 40's and his mother is Mrs. Mary Rhinehart with H.E.L.P.

* * *

Mrs. Pinkney graduated from Salisbury High, Bowie State Teachers and has done graduate work at Morgan, N.Y.U. and D.C. Teachers.

She has written many plays and won third prize in a National Playwriting Contest at Bowie and in 1968 one of 40 teachers to win scholarship by Coe Foundation.

She has a Master's Degree in Education and is attending Fine Arts School of Drama for a Master's Degree at Catholic U.

Go see "Trees of Eden" at Corner Theatre. It tells shows the results of what happens to a man's family when he is unjustifiably accused of rape.

NEW MOVIES

This week's new movies include Woody Allen's "Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Sex, But Were Afraid to Ask," which takes its marathon title from Dr. David Reuben's book. It stars Woody himself, Tony Randall, Lynn Redgrave, Burt Reynolds and Gene Wilder.

Another comedy is 'Butterflies Are Free," based on the Broadway hit about a young man who refuses to let blindness keep him from leading an independent life. Goldie Hawn, Eileen Heckart and Edward Albert (son of Eddie Albert) star in the film.

* * *

"The New Centurions," with George C. Scott and Stacy Keach as a pair of dedicated police officers trying their best to do a difficult job.

"The New Centurions" takes its title from the ancient Roman centurions, soldiers who were hired to protect the empire but villified for doing it.

In "Kansas City Bomber" Raquel Welch stars as a roller derby contestant determined to reach the top in this tough, bone-cracking sport, and Kevin McCarthy plays her team's manager also at Area Theatres.

Also coming is "Napoleon and Samantha," one of the Disney Studio's animal yarns. Johnny Whitaker and Jodie Foster share star billing with a lion named Major.

TIMONIUM

More than $115,000 in premiums and awards will be distributed when the 91st annual Maryland State Fair opens at Timonium August 28 and continues thru September 6th.

Cash premiums will be awarded prize winning specimens of livestock, farm and garden crops, baking, dairy, apiary producers, arts and crafts, flowers and the complete 4-H program.

The fair will be officially opened on Monday, August 28th at 11:30 a.m. Choosing a Farm Queen will take place at 8 p.m. on the opening night of the fair.

The 1972 Farm Queen will be crowned by Pat Mullinix, of Howard County, last year's queen. The newly selected queen and her court will be honored during a float parade on the race track Sept. 3 at 2 p.m.

Governor Mandel and his official party from Annapolis will be honored Aug. 30 at Timonium. Fair officials will meet the governor at the York Road entrance at 11:30 a.m. and a parade through the Fair Grounds will follow. The governor will be a luncheon guest and then will be escorted through the grounds to present prizes. Later in the day he will present a trophy to the winner of the feature race.

A Country Music Show will be the nightly entertainment beginning on August 30 and continuing through Sept. 4th. There will be 24 stars direct from Nashville and three big bands appearing in front of the grandstand. There will be two shows; one at 7:30 p.m. and the other at 9:30 p.m.
