80th Anniversary greetings in verse

To The Staff Of The Afro-American Newspapers on the Occasion of
The Newspaper's Eightieth Birthday, August, 1972

An 80th Birthday is simply so great
You must feel as though you've been touched by Fate
And chosen to do a job so sublime
To help all people progress in time.
Your founder has lighted the torch that you bear:
Your ardor is right, great deeds you may dare.
As you hold to his vision, adhere to what's right,
You'll gain in our power and wisdom and light.
Your church is so human, your insight discerning,
You have much to offer those folks who'd be learning;
You stick to the truth and deliver with force,
Your birthdays show achievement and thus give delight—
May you celebrate many as you carry forth the Light!
—By Miss Harriet Verdin, Afro 1972 Honor Roll member.

Met theatre cashier killed in car crash

MRS. ANN JONES
Life long member of St. Peter Claver

Mrs. Ann Jones, 2400 block Eutaw Pl., Met theatre cashier, was buried in the New Cathedral Cemetery Aug. 12. Elks fraternal rites for the 58-year-old widow were held in St. Peter Claver Catholic Church.

Her funeral service was a military one, with all Elks units officiating, headed by the female department of Grand Major General's staff of officers and presided over by Col. Gladys Johson, liaison officer of the State of Maryland.

Police reports reveal Mrs. Jones died of head and leg injuries shortly after 4:30 p.m. at the Maryland General Hospital Aug. 7.

Police said she was struck by a 1972 Dodge sedan car driven by 22 year-old Miss Rebecca Lee Griffin, 1600 block W. North Ave.

Police reports state she was crossing the intersection of W. North Ave. and Eutaw Place about 4:10 p.m. when the accident happened.

Mrs. Jones, a graduate of Douglass High School, was an Elks Grand-Major General, F. E. W. Harper Temple No. 729.

A life long member of St. Peter Claver Church, she was on a mercy mission collecting money for a sick member when she was struck.

Born in Pennsylvania, Mrs. Jones worked as a cashier at the Met theatre many years.

She is survived by her cousin and her husband, William and Mrs. Eva Banks.

Spencer Gross survived by wife, children

Funeral services for Spencer E. Gross, 27, were held Wednesday at the Williams Funeral Home. The choir of the Ivory Temple C. C. Church sang and the Rev. Eunice King officiated.

"He liked to sing," stated Mrs. Celestine James, sister of the deceased.

Mr. Gross died Aug. 18 after an extended illness.

Born in Baltimore, he had been employed at the Tidewater Lumber Company.

Mr. Gross is survived by his wife of 11 years, Mrs. Dorothy Gross. The couple was married Dec. 25, 1951.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Andre, 7; 2 daughters, Dorothea, 9 and Lena, 8; 4 sisters, Mrs. Margaret Mayden, Mrs. Jean Bumbray, Miss Catherine Gross and Mrs. Celestine James; 3 brothers, James, Richard and Clarence Gross; 2 brothers-in-law, Shelton James and Vernon Bumbray; a grandmother, Mrs. Wilberta McKenzie aunts and uncles.

He is buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery.

Services held for young Whye

Funeral services for Walter Eugene Whye, 19, 2700 block W. Mosher, were held at the chapel of the Morton and Dyette Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon.

He was buried in the Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Police reports show young Whye died of gunshot wounds at the Lutheran Hospital Friday.

Homicide detectives report they are looking for two males in their teens in connection with the Harlem Ave. shooting.

They say they are lookinf for youths both aged about 18, one about 6 ft. tall, wearing blue bell bottom dungarees and light shirt and armed with a small revolver, and the other about 5 ft. 8 ins tall, wearing black pants and black shirt.

Witnesses told police they and the victim were at the playground between Harlem and Edmonsson when they met two males.

They told police the two males after talking to them ask them to have a bit of their subs.

They left the two males and went to sit on a bench but they were again approached by the suspects who talked to the victim.

Police said when the victim and his three friends were leaving, one of the two suspects came hugging the victim. At the same time, police said, one suspect drew up a revolver and shot the victim.

Young Whye is survived by his parents, Walter and Mrs. Margaret Whye; five sisters, Carolyn, Marsha, Rannie, Phyllis Whye and Linda Wilson; one brother, Warren Whye, and two grandmothers, Mrs. Abel Stonbeck and Mrs. Edna Hargett.

A Gospel Song Feast and Baptizing on the Potomac will be held Sept. 10 in McDaniel and Claiborne Md. with the Rose of Sharon Baptist Church, 1830 Bolton St. Buses leave the church at 8 a.m. the fare for adults is $6.50 and for children under 12, $3.50. Rev. Ella W. Everett is pastor.

If you are planning a household move, check to see if department store charge accounts can be transferred, provided they locale.

Ministers Wives hold closing meeting here

The closing meeting and picnic of the interdenominational Ministers Wives Alliance of Baltimore and Vicinity was held recently at the home of the treasurer, Sister Irene Johnson.

A brief business meeting was held in the beautifully appointed living room with the hostess filling in at the piano for the devotions which were prepared by Sister Clotelle Jones.

The Auditing Committee under the direction of Sister Emma Lee Daniels made its report with recommendations which were accepted by the body.

The president, who was a delegate to the National Association of Ministers Wives held in Denver, Colo., gave an interesting and informative report of the proceedings held there.

Our Alliance had 16 persons in attendance for a week of unprecedented happenings.

All of us look forward to and anticipate with much enthusiasm next year's session which will be held here in the city of Baltimore after an absence of twenty years.

The highlight of this meeting came with the installation of the new officers by the state president, Sister Felicia Adams:

President — Mary Revels;
1st Vice President — Mary Brown;
2nd Vice President — Katherine Brown;
Recording Secretary — Dorothy Hunter;
Asst. Recording Secretary — Maria Dawkins;
Corresponding Secretary — Mabis Williams;
Financial Secretary — Florence Queen;
Treasurer — Irene D. Johnson;
Secretary of Herald — Emma L. Daniels;
Parliamentarian — Viola C. Johnson;
Chaplain — Vashti Stokes;
Pianist — Lantha Clark;
Maryland State President — Felicia Adams.
