INQUIRING REPORTER

Citizens Kick Against High Price Of Foods

A recent study by the AFRO of the continuously rising food prices prompted this week's Inquiring Reporter's question: What do you think of the high prices of foods, especially potatoes, onions and other vegetables, and what can be done about it?

Miss Jean Allen, 16, student, 1900 block 32nd St., "People should grow their own vegetables."

George T. Joyce Sr., supervisor Hutzlers Department Store, 1700 N. Fulton Ave., "I don't know why food prices are so high. Onions use to be 10 cents a pound. Now they're 20 cents. It could be the weather."

Mrs. Ruth Ward, 63, nurse, 3027 Gwynns Falls Pkwy., "Food prices are all too high for the poor person with a small income. It seems as though the public can't do anything about it. You can't stop buying food because you can't do without it."

Mrs. Shirley Jones, 23, housewife, 1308 Lucerne Ave., "I don't like it."

Miss Jacqueline Hale, 13, student, 1602 Druid Hill Ave., "I think stores can cut down on some of their prices."

* * *

Mrs. Lucille Keyes, 61, widow, 601 N. Appleton St., "Why is it one store can sell food items for 15 or 20 cents more than another? I'm really against it. Teenagers and old people who are trying to make a living can't fight these high prices. It's just not fair."

James Turner, 65, retired, 1020 E. Pressman St., "I have no idea what can be done about food prices."

* * *

Mrs. Ida Wilson, 48, housewife, 2627 Tyler St., "A and P has about the cheapest food prices that I've found."

Manuel Sava, 84, retired Merchant Marine, 1427 Federal St., "Prices are too high. I don't buy any vegetables."

Benjamin Smith, 29, driver, 900 Cathedral St., "Food prices are very high. But, if you don't buy food, you starve."

* * *

Miss Darlene Grossman, 12, student, 540 McMechen St., "I think stores should lower their prices."

* * *

Frank Smith, 39, wholesale clerk, 4902 Belle Ave., "I think prices are outrageous, but what can we do about it?"

William Butler, school teacher, 400 block Druid Hill Ave., "Prices are too high."

Henry James Johnson, 28, spotwelder, 4000 block Annellen Rd., "Prices, as far as production is concerned, are competitive. You are not forced to buy high priced items. You can go to another store."

Warden gives rules to Pen self-help groups

Gerald H. McClellan, warden at the Penitentiary announced Thursday the general guidelines and rules governing inmates and volunteer participation in organization activities at the institution.

He stated, it is felt that the framework established in these guidelines and rules will improve the quality of inmate organization activities."

The need for issuance of new guidelines and rules to the self-help groups serving state prisons had arisen out of last month's disorders.

Secretary of Public Safety and Corrections, Robert S. Lally, at that time issued an order halting all activities of self-groups.

Certain groups were alleged to be involved in the disturbances.

These new directives therefore provide, the warden adds. "A starting point for returning to normalcy."

The rules and guidelines made known at the meeting represent, Mr. McClellan alleges, the "minimum standards" necessary to insure prison security.

They are:

Inmate organizations exist only with the approval of the warden, with meeting times restricted to two and a half hours' duration and minutes kept of each meeting.

Organizations will not have access to telephones, and all incoming and outgoing mail will go through the Assistant Warden of Treatment's Office, where stamps will be placed.

Organizations can raise funds by collecting dues, and receiving donations and conducting fund-raising projects from sources approved by the Penitentiary.

Volunteers must be over 18, be recruited, screened, trained, oriented and approved by the Assistant Warden of Treatment.

Volunteers must arrive on time for inmate general membership meetings, or else not be admitted.

Marketing Association's Board, have written the Mayor and the Governor urging them to support Det. Douglass' bill.

—Look Around You

lass emphasized. "If the Governor was really interested, he could appoint a black person on an interim basis and support the bill."

Del. Douglass' bill is filed as an emergency bill so it could take effect upon passage and not have to wait until July like normal bills.

He said he wanted an early effective date because by July "most of the major decisions may have been made and contracts given out."

Unfortunately, he added, an emergency bill needs about two-thirds of each house for passage instead of a simple majority.

Frederick E. Nunley, president of the Businessmen's League of Baltimore, and Acknell M. Muldrow II, chairman of the Baltimore charges.

George V. Franklin, indicted for attempted escape, serving 35 years for robbery with a deadly weapon and assault with intent to kill.

* * *

Walter Smith Jr., indicted for attempted escape, serving 12 years for robbery and assault with intent to kill.

In Memoriam

BOLTON — In loving memory of my dear aunt, VIRGIE FOOTE BOLTON, who passed away August 31, 1971:
Nothing but memories as we journey on,
Longing for a smile from a loved one gone.
None knows the depths of our deep regret.
But we remember and will never forget.
Loving Niece
ALICE FOOTE BOND

CRUMP — In loving memory of my dear husband, MONDEL CRUMP, who passed away September 3, 1965:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Wife, NAOMI

DENNIS — In loving memory of our wife, mother, daughter and sister, RUTH E., who passed away August 31, 1966:
Six years have passed since that sad day,
When the one we loved was called away.
God took her home, it was His will,
But you are not forgotten, dear,
Nor ever shall you be, as long as life and memory last.
We shall always remember thee.
Loving Husband — GEORGE DENNIS
DAUGHTERS, MOTHER, FATHER, SISTERS, BROTHERS

HERMAN — In loving memory of my son and our brother STELTON (BISHOP) who passed away August 23, 1972:
If we had all the world to give,
We'd give it yes and more.
To hear his voice and see his smile,
And greet him at the door.
But all we can do, dear BISHOP,
Is go and tend your grave,
And leave behind tokens of love.
To the best son and brother
God ever gave.
MOTHER, FATHER, DAUGHTER, SISTERS, FAMILY and FRIENDS

NICHOLAS — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOHN T., who passed away August 27, 1954, 11:15 a.m.:
In my heart I like to stray,
Along the road of yesterday,
To see talk with you a little while,
I'd like to [illegible] the way that lead me back to yesterday.
Loving Wife — BESSIE L. NICHOLAS

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my dear husband, HENRY ROBINSON, who passed away August 31, 1970:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Wife — LOSSIE ROBINSON

TUCKER — In loving memory of my son our brother, TUCKER, who passed away September 1, 1971:
Unto this day you're with us day to day,
In heart and mind, forever you'll stay.
We love you much, and always will,
Even when all of life stands still.
We'll be together some day in a world of our own.
With our love and hearts united, in our everlasting home.
We'll never forget you, and I must say,
Nothing will ever take the thoughts of you away.
Loving You Eternally; MOTHER, FATHER, SISTERS, BROTHERS, DAUGHTER, NIECES and NEPHEW

YOUNG — In loving memory of my husband and our father, JOHN YOUNG, who passed away August 31, 1970:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."

Birthday Tribute

LENTZ — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my son and brother, LARRY LEE LENTZ JR., on his birthday, August 30, who passed away June 6, 1971.
We do not need a special day,
To bring you to our minds.
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give,
We'd give it, yes, and more
To see the face of our dear son and brother
On this, his Birthday Morn
MOTHER, SISTERS and BROTHERS.
Loving You Eternally;

HALE — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my father and loved one, CARNIE O. HALE, on his birthday, September 3rd, who passed away May 8, 1971:
