The Advisory Board for Correction, Parole and Probation was created by Chapter 401, Acts of 1970, to succeed the Advisory Board for Correction established by Chapter 123, Acts of 1962, and the Advisory Board for Parole and Probation, established by Chapter 457, Acts of 1968. The Board consists of seventeen members. Thirteen are appointed by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services with the approval of the Governor for four-year terms. The Deputy Secretary for Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Chairperson of the Maryland Parole Commission, the Director of Parole and Probation, and the Commissioner of Correction serve ex officio. The Governor designated the first chairperson, but thereafter the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor, designates the chairperson.

The function of the Advisory Board is to study and observe procedures in and the development and progress of the correction, parole, and probation systems in the State. The Board also makes suggestions and gives advice regarding the State's correction, parole, and probation systems to the Secretary, the Deputy Secretary for Correctional Services, the Commissioner of Correction, the Board of Parole, and the Director of the Division of Parole and Probation.

The Advisory Board has no budget. Its members receive no compensation for their services, but they may be reimbursed for necessary and proper expenses incurred in their duties (Code 1957, Art. 41, sec. 204E).

Chapter 213 of the Acts of 1971 created the Correctional Training Commission within the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. The Commission prescribes standards for the approval and continuation of all schools at which correction, parole, or probation training courses are required. It approves and issues certificates of approval to the schools, inspects them from time to time, and revokes for cause any approval or certificate. The Commission prescribes curriculum, courses of study, attendance requirements, eligibility to attend, equipment, facilities, and standards of operation for these training schools. It sets minimum qualifications for instructors and issues appropriate certificates to them. The Commission certifies correctional officers who have satisfactorily completed training programs and issues appropriate certificates to these officers. It also operates approved correctional training schools.

The Commission is authorized to make a continuous study of correctional training methods and procedures for all correctional schools and to consult with and accept the cooperation of any recognized federal, State, or municipal correctional agency or educational institution. It consults and cooperates with universities, colleges, and institutions for the development of all general and
