Board of Education

Appointed Boards: Appointed by the Governor for five-year terms in Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Caroline, Cecil, Dorchester, Frederick, Harford, Queen Anne's, St. Mary's, Talbot, Wicomico, and Worcester counties. The number of Board members depends upon the number of pupils enrolled in the county's schools. In Baltimore City the Mayor with City Council consent appoints the Board, known as the Board of School Commissioners, for six-year terms. In Anne Arundel County the Board includes a student member chosen for a one-year term by a method selected by the Chesapeake Regional Association of Student Councils of Anne Arundel County. In Baltimore County the Board consists of ten members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. Of these, eight represent each of the legislative districts, one represents the county at large, and one is a non-voting student member

Elected Boards: Elected by the voters of the county for four-year terms in Allegany, Charles, Garrett, Montgomery, Prince George's, Somerset, and Washington counties, and for six-year terms in Carroll, Howard, and Kent counties. In Allegany County the Board consists of five elected members and the Board of County Commissioners' chairperson who is a non-voting, ex officio member. The Carroll County Board includes five elected members and the Board of County Commissioners who serve as non-voting, ex officio members. In Charles County the Board has seven elected members. In Garrett County the Board has five members: one from each county commissioner district and two from the county at large. Howard and Kent Counties each have a five-member Board. In Montgomery County the Board has seven elected members and a student member, who serves for one year and is elected by a procedure agreed on by the county Board and the Montgomery County region of the Maryland Association of Student Councils. In Prince George's County the Board consists of nine members, each elected from a separate school board district, and a student member, elected by the Prince George's Regional Association of Student Governments. The Somerset County Board has five elected members: one from each county commissioner district and one from the county at large. In Washington County the Board includes five elected members (Education Article, secs. 3-101 through 3-1003).

Superintendent of Schools: Appointed by the County Board of Education for a four-year term with the approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. In Baltimore City the position is called Superintendent of Public Instruction (Education Article, secs. 1-101(e), 4-201).

Community College Board of Trustees: Consists of seven members appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for six-year terms except in Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Frederick, Harford, Montgomery, and Prince George's counties, and Baltimore City. In Anne Arundel County the Board has eight members, including a student member who serves for one year. In Baltimore City the Board is appointed by the Mayor and City Council. In Baltimore County there is a nine-member board: eight members each represent a different legislative district, and one member represents the county at large. In Frederick County Board members serve five-year terms. In Harford County five of seven members are appointed by the Governor for five-year terms and two are appointed by the County Board of Education from among its members for one-year terms. In Montgomery and Prince George's counties eight-member boards include a student member who serves for one year. In Montgomery County members, except for the student member, are appointed with the advice and consent of the Senate. In Prince George's County the student member is elected by the community college student body (Code Education Article, secs. 16-201, 16-501 through 16-514).

Board of Library Trustees: Appointed by the county governing body from nominees submitted by the Board of Library Trustees. The Board consists of seven members who serve five-year terms without compensation. Members may not serve for more than two consecutive terms. Annually, the Board elects its own officers. In Anne Arundel county the Board itself makes appointments for three-year overlapping terms. In Montgomery County the Library Board consists of nine members appointed by the County Executive with County Council approval for six-year overlapping terms. The Supervisor of School Libraries serves ex officio. In Queen Anne's County the Library Corporation elects the Board for three-year terms. In Talbot County the Board itself makes appointments for four-year terms. In Washington County the Board is self-perpetuat-
