MONTGOMERY WARD
OUR 100TH ANNIVERSARY YEAR

$6 TO $8 OFF

22-78 HI-WAY TIRE

Tough 2-ply rayon body and 2 husky rayon belts provide comfort, strength and excellent mileage. The rayon cord body soaks up the bumps and thumps to deliver a smooth, quiet ride. The rayon belts help stabilize the wide tread, reduce squirm.

TREAD WEAR EXPECTANCY

Receive of variable driving habits and road conditions under which tires are used, it is impractical for Montgomery Ward, and conceivably misleading to our customers, to guarantee any specific number of months or miles of tread wear. We can, however, indicate the wear potential we have built into our tires in terms of months in normal family use. If a Riverside tire does not meet the wear expectancy indicated during the Tread Wear Expectancy, Montgomery Ward will upon presentation of the tire and evidence of date of purchase replace the tire for the then current price less the following dollar allowance:

Tread Wear Expectancy	Tread Wear-out Allowance
	Prorated on
40,000 miles	Miles Driven
45 month	$12.00
39 month	10.00
36 month	8.00
33 month	6.00
30 month	5.00
27 month	4.00
24 month	3.00
18 month	2.00

Tread Wear Expectancy offer does not apply to tires used commercially.

13-Year-Old Rock Glen Junior High White Girl Charged

Torture Murder Of Boy, 3

"We are burying our son Saturday on our 5th wedding anniversary."

This was the statement made Thursday as Mr. and Mrs. Russia Allen Holley Jr. prepared Saturday noon funeral arrangements for their 3-year-old son. Russia Allen Holley II, slain in the woods near their 100 block Diener Place home just before dark Sept. 19.

The father is a postal carrier.

* * *

A 13-year-old white girl, a 7th grade Rock Glen Junior High School pupil, has been charged with the Tuesday 6 to 7 p.m. strangulation death of the likeable little boy.

Police say he was brutally beaten with a blunt instrument and strangled.

A police officer at the scene said the youngster's right hand was tied to his right leg and he was bleeding profusely from wounds.

Medical Examiner Dr. Marvin Platt refused to state the child suffered knife slashes and refused details of the autopsy.

Last rites will be held at the Morton and Dyett Funeral Home with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery. The wake is at the funeral home tonight (Friday).

Mrs. Lula Mackay dies; AFRO woman's editor

Mrs. Lula Jones Garrett Mackay, longtime women's editor of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, died Friday afternoon in Provident Hospital where she had been taken that morning. She was 67.

Mrs. Mackay had been recuperating at her home, 3301 Fairview Ave., for several weeks after having undergone a serious operation in July at the North Arundel General Hospital.

* * *

Mrs. Mackay was stricken in July while attending a dinner party at Friendship Airport Hotel.

She was rushed to Anne Arundel Hospital where she underwent emergency abdominal surgery. She remained there until two weeks ago when she returned to her Fairview Ave., home. She was rushed to Provident shortly before noon today (Friday).

Mrs. Mackay, born in Spartanburg, S.C., came to Baltimore as a young woman and joined the AFRO as a reporter on Sept. 6, 1929. Her late brother, William N. Jones, was an AFRO editor and war correspondent.

During the 43 years, Mrs. Mackay was with the AFRO she covered all types of assignments and was widely known and liked among women's groups. Many young women would turn to her with problems.

In addition, she was an AFRO stockholder.

* * *

Mrs. Mackay was the widow of Clifford W. Mackay, former AFRO editor and city bureau chief, whom she married in August, 1965. He died in March, 1971.

Mrs. Mackay attended Howe Junior College and Tennessee State A and I in Nashville. She later took courses at Morgan State College.

She belonged to numerous civic, social and

Stage set for drug conference

Congressman Parren J. Mitchell (D-7th) has announced an enthusiastic response to his planned hearings on drug abuse and drug abuse programs in Baltimore. The hearings are scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 28 from 3:00 to 5:30 p.m., Friday, Sept. 29 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Saturday, Sept. 30 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The hearings will be held at the State Roads Commission Auditorium, State Office Building, 301 W. Preston St.

'Judging from the response that we have received," Mr. Mitchell said, "there appears to be widespread concern in all segments of the Baltimore community about our mounting drug problem."

* * *

Witnesses for the hearings include Dr. Matthew Tayback, Drug Abuse Administration; Dr. Torrey Brown, Johns Hopkins Hospital; Mrs. Frances Murphy, AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, and the Rev. Fred Hanna, rector of All Saints Church.

Among those legislators and city officials who have thus far joined the black congressman as panelists for the hearing are state legislators Hildegardeis Boswell, Walter Dean, Clarence Mitchell III, and Kenneth Webster as well as City Council members Victorine Adams, Robert Fitzpatrick, and Emerson Julian.

Schoonfield gets walking papers

The Baltimore City Jail Board voted 4-0 this morning (Friday) to remove Warden Hiram Schoonfield.

Announcement came shortly before noon after a special meeting. The controversial warden is removed 'immediately,' although he has the option to appeal within 5 days to the Civil Service Commission.

Those who voted for Schoonfield's removal were Chairman H. Mebane Turner, Walter E. Black, Linwood Jennings and Maurice Harmon.

Voting against his removal: Judge Avrum Fifman, and Dr. Bernard Harris Jr., a longtime supporter of Schoonfield, a senior member of the board and one of three black members.

Dr. Elaine Davis, another black member, was absent. Mr. Jennings, who voted for the removal, is also black.

* * *

Warden Schoonfield, who attended the closed meeting with the board and also the press conference which followed with his attorney, refused to comment. Perspiration stood out on his forehead, although his face appeared calm.

He made none of the jocular remarks for which he is famous.

However, nervousness showed as he rubbed his hands together and twirled his glasses while Chairman Turner read the press release.

WARDEN SCHOONFIELD

Immediately after the vote to call for Schoonfield's resignation, Dr. Harris asked that action be delayed for the Civil Service hearing. This was denied.

Chairman Turner told the AFRO he had given Schoonfield an option to resign but he declined. He added that, 'Both Russell and Schoonfield stated they could maintain their positions.'

Names Of Inmates In Secret Graveyards

WES UNSELD, the Bullets famed center, poses here with two attractive fans, M's Virginia Ellis (left) and M's Detty Kellum. With the team since 1968, the cage star has signed a 5-year $300,000 contract to make everyone concerned very happy.

After Del. Troy Brailey asked that graves be dug up in two secret cemeteries for inmates at Jessups and near the Correctional Institution, authorities dug up information on the Potters Fields they formerly had said they knew nothing about.

In addition to information on the graveyards for persons who died in various prisons, the state officials gave names of some of the inmates buried there. Del. Brailey received the answers to solve the mystery for hundreds of church members and clergy who were deeply concerned.

Due to speak in many churches Sunday, Del. Brailey states he will continue to probe to see where else inmates may have been buried and under what circumstances.

Here are some 150 names for whom relatives may be seeking:

'No connection with reporter's story, Daily says

'You see, this is something we have nothing to do with. The reporters do this thing generally on the side. . . yes, he is a reporter for the Sun. . . but we have nothing whatever to do with it. . .'

The words are those of William F. Schmick Jr., president of A.S. Abell Co., publishers of the Baltimore Sunpapers.

He was reacting to a request to comment on an article about the AFRO attributed to Antero Pietila, identified as a Sun reporter, and appearing in a Baltimore journalism review magazine. A reproduction of the article appears inside this issue.

TONY BROWN MURDER CASE

Miss Jefferson guilty, asks for a new trial

After 3½ hours of deliberation, a Criminal Court found Miss Margie L. Jefferson, 22, was guilty of manslaughter in the stabbing death of Anthony (Tony) Brown, 19, a Dunbar High School senior basketball star.

The verdict of the 12-member panel came at 6 p.m.

Tony Brown lived in the 2600 block Park Heights Terrace and was known as one of the best high school basketball players in the city.

According to police testimony, Mr. Brown was stabbed in the chest with a knife about 4:40 a.m. in Miss Jefferson's apartment 200 block Robert St., on March 28.

Judge William O'Donnell will hear arguments on a motion for a new trial Monday. Miss Jefferson was allowed to remain at liberty on $3,500 bail pending a ruling on the motion. She faces a maximum 10-year prison term.

* * *

While final arguments were taking place the defendant, who was dressed in a long-sleeve, print dress, showed very little emotion.

In the final address to the jury Leslie L. Gladstone, the assistant state's attorney, stated, "Somebody placed the panties on the dresser. The facts in this case are not consistent.

'I want A Job'

By FLETCHER ROBERTS

This is the second in a series which will appear each Friday in the AFRO

The intent of this series is to examine the present job-market in Baltimore, to shed light on the successes and failures of persons seeking jobs and to inform members of the community of availability of employment here in the city.

The present unemployment rate in the city of Baltimore (for the month of July) is 8.4 per cent based
