YWCA classes in session, Reisterstown

Daytime and evening classes are being offered by the YWCA at the Northminster Presbyterian Church, 705 Main St., Reisterstown. Fees range from $2 to $20 per course.

Day classes between 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. include yoga, beginning bridge, arts and crafts workshop, sewing for beginners, sculpturing, glass craft, painting, slim and trim, and dog obedience.

The arts and crafts course presents sessions in macrame, 3-D pictures, string pictures, copper jewelry and decoupage. Sculpturing and painting classes are tailored to the level of development of the student. Soapstone sculpture is offered for beginners with metal and wood for the more advanced.

Painting includes oil and acrylics with color theory and perspective taught if needed. Slim and trim classes with Pat Lansinger as instructor, present exercises created for the individual woman's figure. Two separate sessions of dog obedience classes meet at 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Four named to top jobs at CCB

By DR. SIDNEY KOBRE

The Community College Board of Trustees approved the appointment of a number of faculty members to top positions recently.

Mrs. Gertrude Hodges, who came to CCB as an instructor in nursing in 1966, was appointed chairman of the Nursing Department.

A native of Campbell Hall, N.C. and a graduate of the Johns Hopkins University, she was the first black person to graduate from the Jiffi School of Nursing, where she served on the staff from 1959 to 1961.

After earning her master's degree in nursing education from Teachers' College, Columbia University, Mrs. Hodges taught at St. Agnes Hospital School of Nursing before joining the staff of the Baltimore Community College in 1966.

She was promoted to Associate Professor in Nursing four years later.

In 1970 she was appointed project coordinator for the Career Lattice in Nursing Study for the Maryland Consortium of the Health Sciences, Inc.

The CCB trustees also appointed Mr. William L. McCraney as Chairman of the Psychology Department where he has served as an instructor since 1966.

Prof. McCraney received his Bachelor of Arts degree in social and political science in 1961 at American University and won a certificate in police administration three years later there also.

At Johns Hopkins University, he was awarded his Master of Arts degree in 1966, and three years later, a certificate of study in educational psychology; Prof. McCraney now attends the University of Maryland School of Law where he is working on his Juris Doctor's degree.

MRS. GERTRUDE HODGES New CCB Nursing Dept. Chairman

Mrs. Brenda R. Patterson was appointed coordinator of the New Careers program. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Morgan State College. Prior to her coming to CCB, she served as a teacher in the Baltimore Public Schools.

The CCB trustees also approved the appointment of Douglas MacDonald, financial aid counselor in the Student Personnel Division.

He earned his Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Toledo and a master's degree in student personnel from George Washington University.
