Taylor's touch makes this florist unique

GEORGE A. TAYLOR, owner and operator of Taylor's House of Flowers in the Federal Building downtown here arranges a Christmas display. Assisting him on the right is Mrs. Rae McClellan.

By MICHELE MCRAE

"I've always liked flowers. Before I entered florist school I'd made some pretty nice arrangements for people. I took them to a leading florist one day and he advised me to attend school for the skill because I did have floral talent.

"I think if I could have found a job paying a decent salary, I wouldn't have gone into business for myself, but I didn't.

That is how George A. Taylor became a successful florist in Baltimore in the short period of six years.

Just 34, Mr. Taylor owns and operates Taylor's House of Flowers at 2105 W. North Ave., where he designs the unique floral arrangements for which he is in great demand.

• • •

In addition, for the first time in history under the General Services Administration's minority concessions program, Mr. Taylor has opened a florist shop in the Federal Building in downtown Baltimore, a first.

He has a three-year contract with option to renew for two additional years

This concession was selected under provisions of section 8 (a) of the Small Business Act.

• • •

Mr. Taylor who has exhibited outstanding talent in floral designs, says his, "Taylor's touch" is what makes his work different.

He explains his touch", this way: "I feel flowers should go beyond the usual and that they should be arranged to convey a message instead of being thrown together."

In his displays he uses Bird of Paradise, antherjdiums and many tropicals flowers.

An example of this is the magnificant, "Black Pearl", in which he used a real woman and draped her in about two hundred strands of pearls.

Mr. Taylor also utilized a large head-dress with a very scanty black gown and had her to sit in a large oyster shell.

In this arrangement he added sea grass, large fujilams mums and antherjdium.

• • •

Of all the arrangements he has done the one he designed for Francis St. Elementary School gave me the most pleasure.

He recalled, "some of the kids there had never seen any other flower besides a rose. Seeing the faces of those children light up when they saw display feature carnations, mums, orchids, Bird of Paradise, antheridium and fujiam.

At last Sunday's Pauline Brooks Fashion Show in Mondawmin, Mr. Taylor did the table arrangement. The Center pieces were of Christmas holly, red and white carnations with the tropical antheridium.

• • •

For such occasions as weddings, fashion shows, banquets etc. Mr. Taylor takes time to study personalities, shapes, sizes, dress style and coloring and then, depending on the time of the year, decides on the floral arrangement.

His favorite flower is the Bird of Paradise.

For corsages, he prefers the Cyklidom Orchid.

Mr. Taylor's largest floral displays have been those of a French Bazaar Scene and African Scene and African Scenes done for special occasions.

He enjoys using feathers as additions to his flowers to bring out the attraction of the display.

Mr. Taylor attended the Baltimore city public schools and Morgan State College and has done further study in his field in New York, Washington and California.

He is a member of the Businessmans League and the Allied Florist Association.

Mr. Taylor belongs to St. Katherine's Catholic Church. He is the son of Mrs. Daisy Taylor.

What do doctors recommend for patients in pain?
Doctors all over the country dispense over 50,000,000 of these tablets to their patients each year.
There are many medications a physician or dentist can prescribe for pain. Some are narcotic, many are available only on prescription. But there is one pain reliever, available without prescription, doctors dispense again and again... Anacin.
Each year, doctors give over 50,000,000 Anacin tablets to their patients in pain. If doctors think enough about Anacin to dispense all these tablets, what better recommendation can you ask when you are in pain?
You see, Anacin contains more of the pain reliever doctors recommend most than any other leading tablet.
Headache and dental pain is relieved incredibly fast, minor pains of arthritis are dependably eased for hours; even the aches and pains of colds and flu respond to Anacin. So the tension and depression that can be caused by such pain will be relieved too. And millions take Anacin without stomach upset.
When you're in pain, why don't you follow the practice of so many doctors and take the tablet a doctor might give you in his own office. Take Anacin*.

Columbia Capers

COLUMBIA, Md. — Columbia has a population of some 2,300 residents, a little less than one-third of the county's total population.

It has been predicted that in less than a decade therewill be more people living in Columbia than in any other city of its type in the county.

Officials say i nthe early 1980's the population growth will stop at 110,000.

In the recent election, Question A on the ballot which calls for the school board to be elected was approved by the county voters.

The new law provides for a five-member board elected for over lapping six year terms every two years beginning November 1974. Salaries for members will be $2,000 per year and $2,400 for the chairman.

A poll of some Howard Countians regarding the approval of the elected school board in opposition to the board being appointed by the governor resulted in the following reaction:

Wayman Scott, Ellicott City, former chairman: Human Relation commission "Elected school board is not best for Howard County because the population growth of Columbia would make it so any individual who is trying for the school board will automatically come from Columbia."

The Rev. Walter Cox, Pastor, Locus Methodist Church and President of NAACP, Simpsonville: "I feel it's a more democratic way to do it. I feel that the people can now have a voice in what is being done in the school. This is the way it should be."

Dennis Whittaker, businessman and school P.T.A. president, West Friendship, Maryland: "I am very disappointed in what happened. A few weeks ago in the rural end of the county. I see shaping a power block on the Eastern end of the county. I don't feel that's good at all.

"It will outweigh the values which we have come to realize in Howard County. I have been working with the P.T.A. for over 6 years; I have some insight on the Board of Education. You will have paid elected officers who will be responsible for people who put them in. I don't like it a bit. Not at all; I just don't like it."

Attorney Llewellyn Wauldford, president Human Relations Council: "We had the school board Nomination Federation choosing a person and submitting their name to the governor. That's not good, because the governor will choose whoever he wants. A good example, Dr. HHamilton, a well-qualified person, but was turned down by the governor. I am high y in favor of it, all can get a chance to voice their opinion, more opportunity ..."

MORE OPINIONS

Community Action Agency employee:

Mrs. Dottie Moore, Ellicott City, "I think the rural elements oh be county are going to get lost. We had a federation to submit names, but the governor did not take names from the federation. I don't think anything of it, I think Howard County will be controlled by Columbia."

Mrs. Leola Dorsey, Ellicott City, Secretary to Howard County Council P.T.A.: "The working of an appointed school board more of us will get elected. In the past clubs and organizations could submit names and there names were sent to the Governor and he selected one out of three."

There is a apparent feeling among the Columbia residents that resulting from the vote passing the election of the school board, Columbia will control the election of representative to the school board.

If it his feeling prevails in all issues involving Howard County residents not residing in Columbia against Columbians, there is a suggested need for study on how the interrelationship between the group may become rationalized and compatible.

350 attend the Brooks sip, ball

Sunday afternoon at Mondawmin Mall saw the Pauline Brooks Boutique mark its 20th anniversary.

Some 350 persons attended the champagne sip and fashion show held in the Mall in plain view of the Pauline Brooks Shop located on the second level.

Under the theme, "You've Come A Long Way Baby," models displayed the latest attire for morning, noon and night and holiday occasions.

They paraded from the Brooks Salon down the spiral staircase and on into the first floor among the guests.

Providing background music for the day was the J and B Five.

• • •

Mrs. Brooks, a picture in a long black knit with white collars and cuffs and a peek-a-boo back, received the famed applause when she greeted the anniversary audience.

Models for the day were: Renee Brown, size 6-7, Shirley Harris, 8-6; Edith Harrison, 10-12; Roslyn Smith, 11-13; Cassie Sifford, 10-11, Ella Talley, 13-14 Trena Taylor, 6-9. Carolyn Wainwright, 7, Tenyo Wiggins, 20½ and Melinee Yarrell, 14-16.

Male Model was Tony Dease.

Former Pauline Brooks models who came back for the anniversary show were Frances Ladmirault and Craig Frace. Mrs. Odell Rea was commentator.

In addition to the attire, the models also exhibited hat, by Nell Sheridan who is located in the Pauline Brooks Shop. The men's wear was from Lawrence Parker Ltd. Mrs. Geneva France was the wardrobe mistress.

The program listed the guest coordinators and sales consultants as: Mesdames Ethel Fitchett, Geneva France, Helena Edmonds, and Joan S. Washington.

Hostesses were: Pamela Carroll, Roxanne Miller, Cheryl Russell, charmaine Elickson, Herschelle Reed, and Paula Brooks, daughter of Mrs. Brooks.
