Pot pourri

By MARIE MURPHY PHILLIPS COOKE
(AFRO Women's Editor)

This is the third in a five-part series on holiday cooking. The first two articles were on Christmas cookies. This week yummy cakes which will please your family and friends are featured. In next week's Potpourri, "Soul Food On Your Christmas Dinner Table."

As the mid-winter social pace speeds up, entertaining is the order of the season. But something made with one's own hands, like these tasty Christmas treats especially pleases family and friends.

On busy days, Holiday Horns can provide just the special touch you're looking for. Unique and versatile, they are suitable for a dinner accompaniment, a dessert, or a sweet surprise on a brunch table.

The golden, crusty rolls are wrapped around a colorful mixture of chopped walnuts, chocolate chips and maraschino cherries. Generous sprinkling with cinnamon-sugar before baking adds extra flavor and crunch. Best of all — they can be prepared in advance, frozen and reheated just before serving.

They contribute to good nutrition, too, when made with enriched flour. The essential B-vitamins — thiamine, niacin and riboflavin — and that important mineral, iron, nutrients needed daily for good health, are added in the enrichment process.

HOLIDAY HORNS
32 sweet rolls

Five to five and one half cups enriched flour, two packages dry yeast, one half cup milk, one half cup water, one cup sugar, one fourth cup oil, two and one half teaspoons salt, two eggs, one cup finely chopped walnuts, one package (6 oz.) semi-sweet chocolate pieces, one cup chopped maraschino cherries, oil, cinnamon-sugar, if desired.

Stir together 2 cups flour and yeast. Heat milk, water, sugar, one fourth cup oil and salt over low heat only until warm, stirring to blend. Add liquid ingredients to flour-yeast mixture and beat until smooth, about 2 minutes on medium speed of electric mixer. Blend in eggs. Add 1 cup flour and beat 1 minute on medium speed. Stir in more flour to make a moderately stiff dough.

Turn onto lightly floured surface and knead until smooth and satiny, about 8 to 10 minutes. Shape into ball and place in lightly greased bowl, turning to grease all sides. Cover and let rise in warm place (80 to 85 degrees) until doubled, about 1½ hours. Punch down; divide in half.

Cover; let rest 10 minutes. Roll each half to 15-inch circle. Combine nuts, chocolate and cherries; sprinkle half over each circle, pressing gently into dough. Cut each circle into 16 wedges. Roll up each wedge toward point. Cut each circle into 16 wedges. Roll up each wedge toward point. Please on greased baking sheet with points underneath. Brush with oil. Sprinkle with cinnamon-sugar, if desired.

Let rise in warm place until doubled, about 30 minutes. Bake in preheated 300 degree oven 20 to 25 minutes. Serve warm. *Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop. NOTE: If self-rising flour is used, omit salt.

A GALA BUNDT

Spicy 'Orange Baba is a gala Bundt shaped cake just tastes of "gold, frankincense and myrrh!" Another special plus is that this recipe can be created with ease. The secret — we start with packaged date bread mix which means you can prepare the batter in about five minutes.

After the cake has come from the oven, remove it from the pan, poke holes in the top with a fork and spoon half of its delectable orange sauce over the top.

The orange sauce which features the sparkling flavors of both orange and lemon seeps into the cake to give it extra moistness and goodness. The remaining sauce is served with the cake at dessert time.

SPICY ORANGE BABA

Two eggs, two cups water, two packages Pillsbury Date Bread Mix, one half cup light raisins, one half cup chopped walnuts.

ORANGE SAUCE

Three fourth cup sugar, one tablespoon cornstarch, one tablespoon grated orange peel, one half cup orange juice, one cup water, two tablespoons lemon juice, one fourth cup butter.

Grease and flour 10-inch Bundt or tube pan. In large mixing bowl, combine first five ingredients. Stir until well mixed. Pour into prepared pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 to 60 minutes until toothpick inserted in enter-comes out clean.

Meanwhile, prepare sauce. In large saucepan, combine first five ingredients. Bring to boil; simmer one minute. Stir in lemon juice and butter. Cool cake in pan 15 minutes; remove from pan. With fork, half the sauce over take.
