The office of Lieutenant Governor originally was created by the Constitution of 1864 and functioned from 1865 to 1868. In 1970, the office was reestablished by Constitutional amendment (Chapter 532, Acts of 1970, ratified Nov. 3, 1970). The second-ranking officer of the State, the Lieutenant Governor is elected for a term of four years by popular vote at the same election at which the Governor is elected. The Lieutenant Governor's term of office begins on the third Wednesday in January following election. Eligibility requirements for Lieutenant Governor are the same as those for the Governor. The Lieutenant Governor performs duties delegated by the Governor (Const., Art. II, secs. 1, 1A, 2).

The Lieutenant Governor succeeds to the office of Governor in the event of a vacancy in that office. The Lieutenant Governor also serves as acting governor when notified in writing by the Governor that the Governor will be temporarily unable to perform the duties of office (Const., Art. II, secs. 4, 5, 6).
