We walk together, you and I, in sorrow and in joy
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy,
And death shall never end our love
For thru the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky
For all eternity
Loving Wife,

MISS CHRISTMAS SEAL — Two-year-old April Smith is Maryland's 1972 Miss Christmas Seal. She sits on the lap of Jim Karvellas, Baltimore's honorary chairman of the state Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association's 1972 fund-raising drive.

The late Mrs. Douglas, longtime Methodist

Funeral services for Mrs. Artelia Alice Adams Douglas, longtime resident of Baltimore and Catonsville, were held recently, at St. Paul United Methodist Church in Baltimore.

The Rev. S. R. Bennett and the Rev. James Harris of Mt. Olivet UMC officiating.

Mrs. Douglas, 72 born in Gastonia, N.C., daughter of Thomas R. and Alice Adams and widow of William Frederick Douglas, died at Johns Hopkins Hospital Dec. 11.

Mrs. Douglas was educated in N.C. and taught in Gaston County, N.C. and in Clover, S.C.

She was noted for her musical and speaking abilities.

In the thirties the family moved to Baltimore, where she joined St. Paul Methodist Church, serving as organist, pianist-directress C.S. Harper Choir.

She was superintendent Sunday school, steward; member and past President, WSCS; District Officer of the South Baltimore District WSCS of the former Washington Conference; lay delegate; trained and capped with the L. C. Bell Nurse's Unit.

Mrs. Douglas at one time worked for the division of recreation in music, drama, crafts and was supervisor of play yards.

Even after her health failed and she became blind, she was not deterred nor idle.

She learned to read Braille at 65.

She was an active member of the Women's Assembly for Community Service.

Mrs. Douglas left an impression on the community in Catonsville giving service to all three of its churches in some capacity.

"She leaves fond memories and a beacon of light to those of us who may tend to give up because of personal infirmities," said a friend.

Survivors are: two daughters, Mrs. Emily Allen, teacher in Baltimore Public Schools; Mrs. Elizabeth Dargan, employed Post Finance, Ft. Meade; son, William, U.S. Postal Service; one grandson, George Allen Jr;

Four sisters, Mrs. Dulcina Spencer, Mrs. Ruth Wilson, Detroit; Mrs. Sarah Adams of N.C.; Mrs. Cora Patterson, N.J.; daughter-in-law, Mrs. Doris Douglas and sons-in-law the Rev. George R. Allen and Ernest Dargan.

Prayer

Our Father in heaven; if there are many disturbing things in our society, we have no right to blame Thee. Rather we must confess — as we do — that we have wandered very far from the precepts of Thy Word. Even the best of us have not shown that honor, that love to one another, that obedience to Thee which we ought to have shown. Forgive us these failings, O Lord. And make Thy dwelling place, we pray Thee, in our homes. Be the unseen guest at every meal; the unseen listener to every conversation. Make our homes pillars of strength, so that our society may be cleansed and Thy name praised. Teach our families to honor Thee, that our days may be long in the land which Thou hast given us. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. — Amen.

It is the hope that every one that reads this Christian prayer will join Congressman Parren Mitchell and other concerned citizens of our city in their effort to stop the killing.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!
John and Elmira Thornton

Season's Greetings
to our Many Friends

As the Holiday Season approaches our thoughts turn to the true meaning of this happy time. During the course of the year and in the rush of events, we tend to overlook the important Friendships that are basis of all business relationships, and so it is that we would like to set aside the routine of business, and express our sincere hope that your Holiday Season will be Joyous and Happy, and that the New Year will bring Good Health and Prosperity.

Cash offered youths for dental posters

School children in the metropolitan Baltimore area have a chance to earn extra money during the holidays by creating original posters on what good dental health means to them.

U.S. Savings Bonds will be awarded winners of the contest. It is being sponsored by the Baltimore City-Baltimore County Dental Health Council.

Contestants will be judged in three age groups and should indicate how old they are. Persons 18 years old and younger are eligible to compete.

Three $50 savings bonds will be awarded for the three best posters and six $25 savings bonds will be awarded to honorable mentions.

Posters may be submitted between now and Jan. 15 in color or black and white on 15 inches wide and 20 inches long illustration or poster board. Anything may be used, including poster paint, felt pens and photography. The posters should also carry a slogan.

Posters may be mailed to the Baltimore City - Baltimore County Dental Health Council Poster Contest, 204 N. Liberty St., Suite 305, Baltimore, Md., 21201. Posters will not be returned.
