MISS JACQUELINE GIBSON Now a student at Gettysburg College, Miss Gibson worked in 1971 as an aide at University Hospital.

Lutheran seeking volunteers

Anyone interested in volunteer work at Lutheran Hospital with Baltimore's drug abuse problem should attend the monthly meeting, Jan. 10, of the Auxiliary of Lutheran Hospital of Maryland.

The meeting will be held in the hospital's cafeteria at 730 Ashburton St. and will be followed by a luncheon.

John Bacon, chairman of the Emergency Medical Service Committee of the Baltimore Regional Planning Council, is scheduled to speak on the hospital's commitment to aide community efforts in solving the growing drug abuse problem.

Five Lincoln students aided

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, Pa. — Five students at Lincoln University were winners in the Samuel Robinson Scholarship examination held here recently.

The scholarships were established by Samuel Robinson, one of the founders pany, who made a gift of the American Stores Company, who made a gifto f 500 shares of the company's stock to Lincoln.

The income from the shares is used for the grants to students who best recite the Westminster Shorter Catechism in the opinion of the judges.

Tax expert to teach workshop

A workshop for all individual taxpayers will be held at the Eastern Adult Educational Center, 1101 East 33rd Street, on three Monday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M. beginning January 22.

The course will be taught by Henry H. Sautter an Internal Revenue officer with the Baltimore Office of the Bureau of Internal Revenue. In three-two-hour sessions, adults will learn to prepare both simple and complex returns.

A question and answer period will be offered during each session. In some instances, individual tac problems can be covered by the instructor. A fee of $3.00 will be charged for the complete three evening workshop.

For advance registration call 467-400, Extension 601 after 7:00 p.m. any Monday or Wednasday evening. For information or registration during the day call 467-400, Extension 739.

Del. Chester heads national task force
