COMING

The 1973 Shipstads-Johnson ice Follies will be coming to the Civic Center on January 9. So in our town this Monday for press interviews will be Atoy Wilson, one of the few black skaters to make it. Watch for our interview next week.

ICE FOLLIES

It's Ice Follies time again at the Baltimore Civic Center Monday, the huge cast and crew of America's oldest and finest skating revue comest o town to get set for Tuesday night's opening of another spectacular Shipstads and Johnson Ice Show.

For the eleventh straight winter, Ice Follies will be at the Civic Center for nine performances through Sunday the 14th and this year's 37th edition is rated the finest show in its long history.

Few people realize the number of persons needed to stage the Ice Follies. In addition to the cast and crew of 135 that travel with the show, it will take almost one hundred local stagehands, electricians, wardrobe people, musicians and handy men to get the extravaganza ready for the ice.

The 1973 Ice Follies is headed by Trixi Schuba, 1972 Olympic Figure Skating Champion who has also won the world's title twice. In addition Ice Follies will again present a galaxy of skating greats including Richard Dwyer and the indestructible Mr. Frick, the U. S. Dance Champions, Judy Schwomeyer and Jim Sladky, the famous Cook family, Karen Kresge, Susan Berens, Atoy Wilson and many others.

PLANNING

A committee met with Harold Jennifer at the Civic Center to plan a testimonial for Charles Bubba Smith to be held at Martin's West on March 7 to benefit the Druid Branch YMCA.

THANKS

The AFRO's Mrs. Santa is grateful to the many citizens of Maryland who took time out to lend a helping hand to the so many unfortunate persons on our lists.

Thanks to Henry C. Tribbitt, Silver Spring who sent $10; Council woman Victorine C. Adams who sent $25. and Dr. Harvey Webb Jr. who sent $50. to bolster our sagging check book book. These Contributions were not listed in last Friday's paper.

In any program, you get some hustlers and cheaters, but by and large the people who wrote to the Mrs. Santa program were genuinely in need.

So many people who were down and out years ago, returned to help someoody else. Like the man who came in Christmas Eve and brought three chickens. It was all he had. He walked from Lexington Market to make sure some family had a Xmas dinner.

I delivered the chickens myself to the father who wrote his wife was sick and they needed everything.

Another letter from grateful people helped say" I got on my knees and thanked God for you and your program"

Another, "I bought me some food and many thanks. On my heart did rejoice. May God bless you for helping those less fortunate"

Another family wrote thanking us for helping their little family. They were helped by the 6970 Air Base C—P Fort Meade, Md.

They write:

To all the handsome men at the 6970th Air Base C—P Ft. Meade, Md. the Carey Family thanks you so much for helping us have a very nice Christmas. May God bless everyone of you. We love you all. God keep you all safe and unharmed.

NICE IDEA

The Faculty at Rosedale Elementary School No. 148 w[illegible] Cliff Murray is Principal decided to give their Christmas gift money to Mrs. Santa.

Spearheading the activity were Mesdames Eunice Stephens, J. Neal, Shirley Walker, Edith Redmond, Gladys Flowers, Frances Cockey, and Loretta Gilmor.

"BLACK CAESAR"

Famed black singer and w[illegible] James Brown has been signed to compose the [illegible] "Black Caesar" and to perform the theme.

Brown has had 50 records on the hit charts, including his latest, "Get on the Good Foot," and his "I Got A Bag of My Own" was a runaway favorite.

"Black Caesar" is a crime drama filmed primarily on location in Harlem. It stars Fred Williamson, Minnie Gaynor, Julius W. Harris, D'Urville Martin, Don Pedro Colley, Gloria Hendry, Art Lund, Val Avery and Phillip Roye.

STORY THEATRE

Paul Sills' long running Broadway success will visit Baltimore's Mechanic Theatre beginning Monday January 8th through Saturday, January 20th in the course of its season long coast-to-coast tour.

A brilliant dramatization of ten of Grimm's Fairy Tales using mime and contemporary music as well as dialogue, "STORY THEATRE" is more than children's entertainment. It is theater as it should be, a combination of the aural and the visual, the result of which is laughter and enjoyment for its audience.

In one story, a little farmer by using his incredible imagination in a town of rich peasants bamboozles his way into riches. In another, a robber bridegroom [illegible] his fingers is fooled by his bride to be. In yet another story, a master thief steals a sheet, a ring and a parson.

"MY HOUSE"

Nikki Giovanni, Princess of Black Poetry, also reigns as Whist champion of the recent autograph — whist party introducing her new book, "My House", (William Morrow and Co.), held at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Labor Center, 310 W. 43rd Street, New York, New York.

After she and Dewey Hughes (producer of Washington D.C.'s WRC-TV Show "The Place") beat and "Bostoned" challengers from the play-off games, Miss Giovanni read selections from "My House". She was then joined by actress Ruby Dee, marking the first time the two had appeared together in public.

SAMMY DAVIS, JR.

Sammy Davis, Jr. is featured in the second "All In The Family" comedy album in a segment representing the famed "Sammy's Visit" episode of the show.

Sammy is featured in a comedy section on the album, marking one of the few times he has been recorded in comedy rather than musical scenes. He works with Carroll O'Connor, Jean Stapleton, Rob Reiner, Sally Struthers and Mike Evans in the comedy sketch.

BROWNE

Roscoe Lee Browne, (Yale Dancy), a poet-balladeer, confesses to a murder, because he thinks his daughter killed the man with whom she was having an affair, but Karl Malden (Det. Mike Stone), decides to probe further in "A Trout in the Milk," on the ABC Television Network's "The Streets of San Francisco," Saturday, Jan. 6 (9:00-10:00 p.m., EST).

The title of the episode is derived from Thoreau: "Some circumstantial evidence is very strong, as when you find a trout in the milk."

MELBA AND MIKE—Singing star Melba Moore joins Mike Douglas as cohost of The Mike Douglas Show beginning Monday, January 8.

DENTAL FILM

"What About Tomorrow?" — a film developed to recruit students into dentistry by dramatizing the search of a black youth for identity and a life goal — was honored with a Golden Eagle Certificate from CINE (Council on International Nontheatrical Events) doring their Fifteenth Annual Awards Ceremonies in November.

The Certificate, which is awarded to those films which CINE considers most appropriate for international competition, was received by Dr. Clifton O. Dummett, Associate Dean of the University of Southern California's School of Dentistry and Project Director for the film. Last spring the film won a first place Gold Camera Award at the U.S. Industrial Film Festival.

Produced by the National Dental Association in 1971 under contract with the Division of Dental Health, Bureau of Health Manpower Education, National Institutes of Health, HEW, "What About Tomorrow" emphasizes that young people should spend a portion of today preparing for tomorrow and portrays dentistry as a rewarding career to pursue.

Sheila Fraser

"Purlie" at the Billy Rose Theater.

"Super Fly" star Ron O'Neal and producer Sig Shore led a contingent this past Tuesday aboard an Atalia Flagship flight from Kennedy Airport, bound for Rome, Italy where they will begin shooting the sequel to what has been the top Black money-making film of the year.

Also aboard was Sheila Frazier who co-starred with O'Neal in the original film.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Mattie Chapman and former wife, of the late Rev. Thomas Fraser Jr.

Added to the cast of the sequel, and expected to join he company in Rome in January are veteran stage and film star Roscoe Lee Browne, and Robert Guillaume, the latter now starring in a limited engagement in New York City of Other members of the movie company leaving Tuesday were Bob Gaffney, director of photography; Nate Adams, associate producer; Carol Banks, script girl, and Bob Brady, film editor.
