gram will involve the use of the news media to bring out hazards and how to eliminate them during the cold season.

Chief Bedford warned against defective heating plants, storage of combustibles close to heating plants and careless smoking.

He stated the department is intensifying its inspection of houses, industrial buildings, schools houses, day nurseries and commercial houses.

He said they also look for violation of fire prevention codes and anything that would pose as hazard to citizens.

Announcing the program Mayor Schaefer called for observation of fire prevention codes and noted, "The loss of life and destruction of property can be avoided with relatively easy precautions. If is important that we reach every citizen and let him or her know what can be done."

Four persons were injured when a one-alarm blaze gutted a two-story row house in the 1800 block at Lafayettt Courts, during E. Federal St. early Wednesday.

Mrs. Julia Wall, 42, stated she was awakened by smell of smoke about 3:55 a.m. and saw flames blocking the stairs leading to the first floor.

She roused her husband, Howard, 43, and their daughter and grandson and they made their way out to the first floor to safety.

Another fire broke out in the basement of a home in the 3900 block Bateman Ave. leaving five persons homeless.

Fire officials report they sounded three alarms before bringing the fire under control. No injury was reported.

A two-alarm fire in the 3500 block Forest Park Ave. left five more persons homeless Tuesday. Mrs. Bernice Parker and her children were forced to flee the house after the fire had erupted in the basement about dinner time.

Cigarette apparently caused a blaze in a rooming house in the 200 block W. Monument St. Tuesday. The fire broke out in the second floor bedroom of the building.
