DIRECTIONS '73

"New Directions '73" an all-day Leadership Development Conference sponsored by Girl Scouts of Central Maryland, will be held at Baltimore's Civic Center on Saturday, January 27.

Mrs. Lenore Romney, 1972 co-chairman of the National Women's Political Caucus and vice-president of the Executive Committee, National Center for Voluntary Action, is to be the dinner speaker.

Eleven workshops will be offered at both the morning and afternoon sessions of the Leadership Conference. Each registrant will be able to participate in two selected from a roster of topics ranging from the pratical., skills-oriented, to the more theoretical aspects of effective leadership.

Exhibits will be designed to show resources available in the community and in the Girl Scout organization which leaders of all kinds of groups will find helpful in fulfilling their tasks. There will also be a film festival.

Girl Scouts of Central Maryland, in making this Conference available to its leaders, continues its policy of providing experiences which will result in week-in, week-out Girl Scout program activities of ever-increasing quality. The Leadership Conference is open also to Girl Scouts in neighboring councils and to non-Scouts interested in building leadership skills.

MRS. LIEDER ELECTED

Mrs. Constance Lieder, assistant professor of social strategy at the University of Maryland School of Social Work and Community Planning, has been elected to a three-year term on the Board of Governors of the American Institute of Planners.

An accomplished planning and housing consultant, Ms. Lieder has served with the Regional Planning Council, Morton Hoffman and Co. Urban and Economic Consultants, and Rogers, Taliaferro, Kostritsky and Lamb, architects and planners, since coming to Baltimore in 1961. Prior to that time she was an associate planner at Harvard Medical School.

A former chairwoman of the League of Women Voters' Baltimore Metropolitan Council, she is also a member of the American Society of Planning Officials, the International Federation for Housing and Planning, and the World Future Society.

CLASS OF '53

The Douglass High School June Class of 1953 is planning its 20th Year Class Reunion. Many members of the class have not been contacted. If you have not been contacted, or if you know of a classmate who has not received the initial mailings regarding the Reunion, call Leroy Durham at 323-2270, Ext. 335, weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. or at 997-0340 after 5 p.m.

GIFTED AND BLACK

Make it a special point to see "To Be Young Gifted and Black" now playing at the Arena Playhouse through Jan. 21. The story is based on the life of writer, Lorraine Hanberry. It's a joyous, laughter-filled story, beautiful and moving.

The Arena Players, as always, do an outstanding job. The double cast includes: Sam Washington, Jerre Timberlake, Robert A. Smith Jr., Mary Pat Justice, P. Winfield Thomas III, Charlene Williams, Jerry Wood, Fred MacFadden, Barbara Barth, Vacountess Payne, and Mary West Miller.

(Cuff Note: Lorraine Hansberry wrote "A Raisin In the Sun" at age 29 and in 1959 won the New York Drama Critics Circle Award for the Best Play of the Year. Her second play, The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window and ran on Broadway for some time. She died at age 35. Dr. Martin Luther King hailed her on her commitment of spirit, her creative ability and her profound grasp of the deep social issues confronting the world today will remain an inspiration to generations yet unborn."

"To Be Young, Gifted and Black" is truly an inspiring performance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams entertained during the holiday season with over 100 guests partaking of the warm hospitality in their lovely Druid Hill Ave. home.

One group happily greeted and dined was the staff from the Fells Point Methodist Parish of which, daughter, Mrs. Margaret Bowler is affiliated.

Present for a most tasty meal which included pilaf, homemade rolls, garden salad and choice of two homemade cakes were the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Silas J. Mack, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pringo, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Angle, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sterl Sterbock, Mrs. Chalotte Jones, Miss Elizabeth Dicembe, Misses Helen Leach and Elsie Krug, Mrs. Margaret Bowler, and Mrs. Miriam Winborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams are members of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church.

AND MORE PARTIES

Another highlight of the holiday season was the New Year's Eve party given by Mrs. Elizabeth Brownskin at her Druid Park Lake Drive home. The affair was catered by Brax D. Purnell.

Many of her guests came from various parts of the country. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Seth Rey, New Bern N.C.; Mrs. Cherry Davis, New York City; Mrs. Clarice Gibbons, Ohio; Nero Lessane, S.C.; Thomas Rountree, S.C. Mrs. Mrs. Grace Scott Johnson, Catonsville; Mrs. Sarah Scrivner and Florence Collier, Halethorpe.

THE KOPELLES

The Kopelles of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority were at the Dukeland Nursing Home last month where they served punch and homemade cake to all the patients and a fetstive program was presented. Program coordinator was Sarah Kopel. Mrs. Elizabeth Day was at the piano. Mrs. Santa Claus was played by the Kopelle's president, Terry Morton who gave cards and candy to the residents.

Present for the activity were Denise Claiborne, Kim Lewis, Theresa Taylor, Jacqueline Jackson, Adriene Harris, Victoria Hicks, JoLene Parker, Ylanda Williams, Terry Morton, Shari Kober, Trodonna Williams, Kevin Carter, Sherry Morton, Constance Bennett, Corlis McNeal, Dewana Parker and Darlene Davis.

Parents present were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Parker and Mrs. Sherry Kober.

And Sorors Elizabeth Day, Veta Greig, Ethel Covington, Louise Turks, Doris Williams, youth coordinator.

GIRL FRIENDS

The Girl Friends, Inc. decided to make the young patients of the Provident Hospital Pediatric Ward their holiday project for 1972.

Toys, games, and books were among the gifts given to the hospital.

Club members E. Anita Wheatley, Agnes Patterson, Mae Parrott, and Catherine Law delivered the gifts to the staff of the Pediatric division and visited with the children. Charles Tildon, director of development and public relations, greeted the group, directed their tour of the ward, and discussed current and future needs of the division with the group.

was not a new project. From 1961 through 1969, the Baltimore Chapter of Girl Friends sponsored nine debutante cotillions involving many organizations of the city.

During this period $11,263.37 was raised as a result of the cotillions and presented to the New Provident Hospital Pediatric Ward. The Girl Friends decided that future efforts and interests of the club would be directed to this ward.

President of the group is Mrs. Sheda Wilson. Members are Bernice Chatman, Georgeanna Chester, Anne Davis, Margaret Wriver, Ruth Jennifer, Laura Newton, Catherine Law, Gwendolyn Lynch, Alga Parker, Mae Parrott, Agnes Patterson, Mazie Rea, Eliza Robinson, Gwendolyn Roper, Irma Roy, Gaynelle Spaulding, Elizabeth Stewart, Frances Vessells, Anita Wheatley, Doris Wheeler, Mae Williams, Vera Williams, and Catherine Wilson.

RICHARDSONS VISIT

The William H. Richardsons (Eloise of Annapolis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell Ricketts (Clara, Eloise's sister) in Indianapolis, Ind. during the holidays.

Friends kept the couple well entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ramsey (he's the Indianapolis Recorder columnist) hosted cocktails and dinner at the Scenic View Country Club, and Mrs. Lafayette Turner entertained at an eggnog sip in their honor. They were also guests of Mrs. Stella Woodall at Butler University where the Chinese Acrobats performed in Clowes Hall.

Others who made their trips a memorable one were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Payne at breakfast; Mrs. Marjorie Holdier, bridge party; Mrs. Katherine Hughes, dinner; Mrs. John Flack, a dinner party, and Mrs. Lois Mendenhall, supper and cards.

ZETA OPEN HOUSE

The Zeta Educational Center sponsored by the Alpha Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. will hold its Open House tomorrow, January 13, 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Lafayette Square Community Center Building on Lanvale and Fremont Ave.

Come out and meet the staff, parents, and the children who will participate in the program of the Zeta Educational Center.

Soror Elizabeth Demby is director of the program. Soror Sandra Farmer assistant director; Soror May Fields, basileus.

GIRL SCOUTS

Attractive visitor in the Baltimore area this week is Mrs. Freddie Lucas of N.Y., vice chairman of Girl Scout Regional 2, and a member of the National board.

Mrs. Lucas and other Girl Scout executives are here to find out whether the challenges of serving young people in Central Maryland are being met by the Girl Scout Program offered through the local council.

The national Management Adult Team has been in the Md. area all week.

Mrs. R. Gary Marquart is president of Girl Scouts of Central Maryland.

The Audit Team was headed by Mrs. Frieda Weinberg of Newark, Dela., chairman of Girl Scout Region II and a member of the national board.

Girl Scouts of Central Maryland serve approximately 29,000 girls and 6,00 adults in Baltimore City and Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Frederick, Harford and Howard Counties.

BIG SISTERS

On last Sunday afternoon the Board of Directors of Big Sisters-Little Sisters invited their members, friends and members of Big Brothers of Baltimore to a tea held in their offices at 2201 Maryland Ave.

The setting was enhanced by gleaming silver, a warm fire and a festive table of food and beverages. Guests were greeted at the door by Big Sister Marjorie Washington. They were then introduced to Mrs. Mary Carter Smith, co-founder and past president of the organization and Walter Pasciak, executive director of Big Brothers of Baltimore.

Members of the board of Big Sisters-Little Sisters were presented: Chairman, the Rev. Simon B. Eccard; Mrs. Ruth Fauntleroy, Mrs. Frances Lentz, and Mrs. Helen Benton.

Representing Big Brothers were: Warren Timmium, Warren Valerio, and Robert N. Lavaller.

Other Big Sisters present were: Mesdames Tillatha W. Johnson, Willnetta Sutton, Grace Black, Lillie Seward, Celeste P. Myers, Betty Baldwin, Betty Buster, and Margerea Green.

GUESTS

Other guests about were: Mrs. Walter Pasciak, Mrs. Willie Nowden, Thomas Barry, Ellwood Z. Rivers, Clearman Sutton, John Geist, executive director, Health and Welfare Council and James Rouse Sr., president, Rouse Co.

Mrs. Lillie Seward, president of Big Sisters-Little Sisters, presided over a brief meeting. She gave the important announcement that though a partial merging of Big Sisters-Little Sisters with Big Brothers of Baltimore, a Community Chest Agency, a federal grant has been received that will give the group a professional staff and enable it to double the number of Big Sister-Little Sister relationships. Mrs. Willnetta Sutton will supervise this part of the program. Mr. Rouse was warmly thanked for his past gifts to Big Sisters. John Geist was the person who handled details of the merger. Mrs. Seward also announced that Mrs. Mary Carter Smith, of Big Sisters, International will be attending an executive meeting of that group next month at the International Headquarters in Chatanooga, Tenn.

COURTESY CLUB

The Courtesy Club of St. John's AME Church met Saturday at the Lynchester Rd. home of Mrs. Marie Larver with Mrs. Shirley Singletary, president, presiding. Business for the afternoon was making plans for an Evening of Songs, featuring their pastor, the Rev. Benjamin Foust, along with Miss Blanche Foreman and Mrs. Julia Boone on Feb. 4.
