Child, 4, found dead hanging from bunkbed

Warren Clifton Wiggins, 4, 327 N. Stricker St., was found dead hanging by a piece of cloth from his bunk bed in his third floor bedroom Monday afternoon, police report.

Medical examiner's report reveals cause of death is hanging, however, manner of death is undetermined.

Police records show the child, tucked into bed by his mother, was found hanging by a 14-year-old youth on his return from school at 3:15 p.m.

* * *

Mrs. Ailene Wiggins, the child's mother, told police she put the child to sleep at about 12:30 p.m. and went to her second floor bedroom for a nap.

She stated she heard nothing until her brother, Michael Powell, came from school to find the child hanging from his bed dead.

Police quote Michael as saying he arrived from school for a dental appointment. He said he went to his sister's bedroom apartment and woke her up and reminded her about the dental appointment.

He said he then went to their third floor bedroom to find Warren hanging from the bunk bed with a piece of cloth around his neck. After screaming for his sister, he stated, he went over to Warren and removed the cloth from around his neck.

Police told the AFRO they believed the child's death was accidental.

Young Wiggins was buried this morning (Friday) in the Cedar Hill Cemetery following funeral services in the Phillips Funeral Home.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his father, Willie Wiggins; two uncles, Michale and Norman Powell; three aunts, Mrs. Emer Owens, Mrs. Betty Simmons and Mrs. Beverly Adams; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wiggins Sr

This committee, now with the loss of its five Health Council members, is continuing its comparison of the June, 1971, figurez with the June, 1972, data.

As to the Affirmative Action Coordinator, the report commented, "It was determined the professional staff needed a person who will be responsible for implementing the recommendations" of the Minority Participation Committee.

UF officials told the AFRO the Affirmative Action Coordinator may be chosen next week.

Court of Appeals upheld Judge Kaufman's order.

Anticipating the county's newest postponement attempt, Mr. Smith reported that a brief in opposition" had been filed with the Chief Justice's office.

It is expected that Justice Burger will not rule on the motion until sometime today (Friday.

It appears that many parents are already preparing to abide by the lower court order expecting it to be again upheld by the decision of Chief Justice Burger.

Numerous inquiries have been received from parents of students in the nation's 10th largest school district in which 47 per cent of the tota enrollment ride buses. Prince George's county Board of Education has installed a hotline (627-6100) to handle all questions arising from the busing plan.

REPORT TO SHAREHOLDERS

The year end report is an occasion to report to you on the progress your association has made.

Through your additions to your savings accounts we have been able to handle an ever increasing demand for mortgage loans. As of the year end, we have made available to 238 families, mortgages that have enabled them to become property owners instead of renters. This is the primary aim of your association. Loans made for the year ending December 31, 1972 totaled $220,000. This was made possible by your additions to your savings accounts plus the earnings of your association.

Your association earned from the community and returned to the community in the form of dividends the sum of $28,391.13 an increase of $6,580.09 over 1971.

Continued additions to your savings will enbale us to show even greater gains for the year 1973,

Now is the time to join the IDEAL family of regulars who save every pay day through pay roll deductions or our postage paid save by mail.
