Changes set for mail to Vietnam

District Manager-Postmaster Warren M. Bloomberg issued the following statement Thursday: The Baltimore Post Office as well as its associate offices has discontinued accepting second-class mail (including airlift eligible publications), third-class mail and surface parcells addressed to Vietnam Military Post Office addresses.

"SAM (space available mail) and PAL (parcel airlift) PARCELS", said the Postmaster, "and all Air-mail or priority mail parcels will not be accepted."

The Department of Defense requested the Postal Service to discontinue acceptance of mailings in these categories on Feb. 5.

Only letter mail will move beyond San Francisco after this date said the Postal Service spokesman. Personal letter mail to Vietnam Military Post Office addresses must be mailed prior to March 1, 1973, or delivery prior to the discontinuance of the Vietnam Military Post Office cannot be assured.

Library plans 'freak fashions'

"Fashion Freak-Out," a program planned especially for young people by the staff of the Enoch Pratt Free Library's Forest Park branch at Garrison Blvd. and Callaway Ave., will be held at 6 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 12.
