

ANNAPOLIS, January 19, 1870.

HON. BARNES COMPTON,

President of the Senate:

DEAR SIR:—According to law I herewith submit the regular report to the Legislature of Maryland of the Police Commissioners of Baltimore city, for the years 1868-69.

Respectfully,

LEFEVER JARRETT,

President of Board.

Which was read and referred to the Senators from Baltimore city.

The Committee on the part of the Senate made the following

REPORT.

The Committee appointed by the Senate and House of Delegates to count the votes for Treasurer of Maryland, beg leave to report, that on yesterday, January 18th, 1870, after the votes of the Senate had been deposited in the ballot-box of the Senate, and before the House of Delegates had completed its second ballot, the Senate adjourned; the box containing the ballots of the Senate being properly sealed, was then placed in the hands of the Secretary of the Senate for safe-keeping.

In the House of Delegates the votes of the members having been deposited in the ballot-box of said House, in consequence of the Senate having adjourned, the box containing the ballots were duly sealed by the Speaker and placed in the keeping of the tellers of the House.

That on the the 19th day of January, in compliance with the concurrent message of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the Joint Committee retired to a private apartment with the boxes of the respective Houses containing said ballots, and upon counting the same find that John Merryman has received sixty-two votes; Robert Fowler has received thirty-three votes; Joshua Vansant received thirteen votes; William F. Pannell received three votes.

Your Committee therefore respectfully report, that Mr. John Merryman having received a majority of the whole number of votes cast, is returned by the Committee, in conformity with the established usage, as elected to the office of Treasurer of Maryland.

HENRY SNYDER,

JAS. C. CLARKE,

A. P. GORMAN,

J. M. STREETT,

DANIEL W. CAMERON.

Which was read

Whereupon it was declared that John Merryman was duly elected State Treasurer.

The Senate adjourned.
