Seminar slated on life planning

A Life Planning Seminar will be jointly sponsored again by the Student Senate of the University of Baltimore, the Ecumenical Campus Ministry, and the Central Branch YMCA in the University of Baltimore's Student Lounge, 1420 North Charles St. Feb. 24, 10 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Hal Wilson, a professional director of the YMCA and Ed Bushong, a staff member of ECM will act as the seminar leaders for the day. The seminar will deal with the two different life styles that man has come to know.

$1,000 worth drugs seized, suspects flee

Police report they are still keeping a watchful eye on the 1700 block Wilmer Court where two Central District officers tried unsuccessfully to arrest two persons suspected of drug dealings last Sunday.

Patrolmen Charles Walke and Charles Smoot, on all-night stake-out last Sunday, saw two men at different times attempting to stash a brown paper bag above the rear of two different trucks parked in the 1400 block Wilmer Ct. in West Baltimore.

According to their report, they had been watching the area regularly for the past two weeks.

While unsuccessful in arresting the two men, they recovered 15 bags of heroin. Police said a total of 81 packets recovered by the police are valued at $1,000.

Police say while the two officers were on the stake-out they saw a man stash a brown paper above the rear wheels of a truck and he escaped by running through a vacant lot. Police took District police station for a hearing Thursday.

About three hours later, they saw a second man place another brown paper bag above the rear wheel of a second truck parked across from the first one. from the abandoned truck 66 packets of heroin in a brown paper bag.

How to Speak and Write Like a College Graduate

"Now, like thousands of intelligent men and women who have not had college training in English, you can gain the ability to speak and write like a college graduate without going back to school," says Don Bolander of Career Institute.

"The new C. I. Method makes it easy. In only 15 minutes a day at home, you can bring up your vocabulary, stop making embarrassing mistakes, improve your writing, discover the 'secrets' of interesting conversation.

According to Bolander, "Once you gain a mastery self able to get ahead faster in your job and social life. You'll gain new poise and confidence plus the respect of those around you."

For readers of this newspaper, Bolander has made available a free 32-page booklet that tells how you can gain the ability to speak and write like a college graduate, in your own home. Just send your name, address and zip code on a postcard or letter to Don Bolander, Career Institute, Dept. 643-08, Mundelein, Illinois 60060. (A Home Study School) sequently were the "injured parties" since the teens had no signed permission and contrary to rules, had sold tickets. Sponsors of both groups were residents.

Mr. Moore stated, "The adult group is due an apology. They can come again at any time without deposit.

"The teenagers were not given a key. They pushed in. They had no agreement for the date.

"The adults more than went the second mile and offered to go on with their affair if the teens would leave around one o'clock, but the teenagers refused. The adults graciously left before it got out of hand. We are very, very, very sorry."

Mrs. Ernestine Addison, resident manager told the AFRO the mother of the teenaged girl who had the affair was told on Friday she could not have the key since she had no confirmed date for Saturday.

She stated, "She did not say it was a paid affair. The band was told Saturday they could not stay. I was on the scene with the police.

"The adults were very nice and offered to pay one-half the band's cost if they could hold their dance after the teen party.

"The teenagers said the adults had to leave or they would tear the place up. The young people were very wrong. But what could anyone do with 200 teenagers?

"The police said the whole force would not be able to hold them back. They had sold tickets all over the city for $2.75. I could have cried when I saw the adults taking the turkey and cakes out the stove and leaving. They were beautifully dressed in long gowns."

that I'm a permanent resident of Baltimore and have been so all my life.

"My family is here. I practice law here. I have the same apartment that I've had for the last five years.

"I pay Baltimore property taxes and am a registered voter here.

"I have every intention of remaining here.

"It's true I also teach at the University of Virginia Law School in Charlottesville, Va. and that I'm out of town about half of each week, but the issue is my permanent residency, not the jobs I have.

"There is no charter requirement that a board member work exclusively in Baltimore.

"In some respects, it enhances, makes me a more effective member of the school board. I have no intention of resigning."

Mr. Gibson told the press that he'd been on the University of Virginia law faculty since last September.

Asked if he'd contacted the mayor or vice versa, he said no.

White matron offered him bite of apple on stick

Larry Robinson, 20, 1000 block W. Saratoga St., on Tuesday was found guilty of sexual assault by a Criminal Court jury of eleven females and one male.

Judge Robert Watts deferred sentence pending motion for a new trial. The defendant was charged with sexual assault and robbery of a white matron, who is the mother of four black children.

Police testified last Oct. 8 the defendant picked up the victim from Fayette St. He had a gun and took her to a house on Baltimore St. They said Robinson then took the matron back to the car and took her wedding rings and $31. She escaped when he stopped for a traffic light, the jury was told.

The defendant told the jury, "I met her by the bus station at Fayette and Howard St. She was coming up the street with a apple on a stick. She looked at me and smiled. I asked her if she was going to offer me any apple. She placed it in front of my face and I said no thank you.

"She said when she and her husband get mad, she walks the street. I told her I had to catch the bus. She gave me her bus fare. I went home and told her let's go to the basement. We got to talking. She started discussing her husband.

"She told me she had four black children and her husband was black."

At this point, in the defendant's testimony, the matron jumped up and yelled out in the courtroom, that is a lie."

Robinson continued to tell the jury, "We went to catch the bus and I gave her my name and phone number. I told her only to call me after 4 p.m. I went home and got in the bed. Around three or four hours later, the police knocked on my door and told me they were looking for Larry Robinson."
