

CHAPTER 158.

AN ACT to add a further Supplement to An Act to Incorporate the Weverton Manufacturing Company, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter one hundred and forty-four, appointing certain persons Directors, and regulating the time and place of holding the first meeting of stockholders.

Preamble. WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly that the corporation known by the name of the Weverton Manufacturing Company, chartered by the General Assembly of Maryland, December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and the supplement thereto; after having been duly organized in accordance with its said charter, went into active operation and continued to perform the duties imposed by the said Acts of Incorporation until about the year eighteen hundred and sixty, when by reason of the then officers of the Company living in different States, and the troubles of the country then existing, incident upon the late war, and for divers other uncontrollable reasons, the operations of the Company ceased, the records and seal were mislaid or lost, and the election of Directors, as required by the original Act of Incorporation, has been omitted since the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine or thereabouts; and it is desired that the operations of the Company may be renewed and again carried on, and there are no officers authorized to call a meeting of Stockholders for election of Directors or other purposes, therefore,

Directors. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Marshall Chapman, Henry F. Bell, George Yeakle, Mason Kindell and George V. Rex, be and they are hereby appointed and declared to be Directors of the said, "The Weverton Manufacturing Company," with all the power and authority of Directors regularly elected by the stockholders and subject to all the obligations, responsibilities and penalties of the same; and said Directors shall hold their office until the first Operations renewed.

Powers and penalties.