United Baptist convention held

The United Baptist Convention of Maryland held its third quarterly meeting Thursday, Feb. 22, at the New Hope Baptist Church. The Rev. Lewis Campbell was host pastor.

The guest speaker was the Rev. W. W. Payne, pastor of City Temple Baptist Church, whose message was taken from the 4th Chapter of the Book of Esther.

The Rev. Montague Brackett, president of the parent body, reported on the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., which is to dedicate a Chicago, Ill. library. He also told the congregation of the proposed merging of the two conventions.

The United Baptist Convention women convened in the afternoon and were addressed by the Rev. Bick Lumpas, director of Student Ministry of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Rev. Mr. Lumpas spoke on the topic of "Racism," and also appealed to the women for housing of college students expected in the Baltimore area during spring vacation to volunteer aid in the repairing of homes of elderly persons.

Miss Helen V. Benton, president of the women's group, gave a report on her trip to the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.
