

Levy annually authorized and empowered to levy annually such taxes upon the assessable property within said corporation as may seem to them necessary ; provided, that the amount of taxation for any one year shall not exceed thirty cents in the one hundred dollars, which tax may be collected by a collector appointed by the Commissioners, and in case of neglect or failure to pay such taxes, they shall be collected in the mode prescribed for the collection of county taxes.

Footways. Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of said village are hereby authorized to direct any or all of the footways within said village to be laid off, levelled and paved with such material as may to a majority of them seem best, and one-fourth of the expenses of such work and improvement shall be borne by the owner or owners of the property before which the same shall be directed to be made, and upon neglect or refusal to pay the amount so assessed and expended, the Commissioners may recover the same of said owner or owners in such manner as county taxes may be collected and recovered.

Expense, how borne.

Prison. Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of said village are authorized to procure a house for the incarceration of all persons who may be committed thereto by the proper authorities for the violation of any ordinance of said corporation.

In force. Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on and after the day of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1870.

CHAPTER 429.

AN ACT to repeal Sections one, two, three, five and seven, of Chapter four hundred and thirty-three, of the Acts of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section one, two, three, five and seven, of Chapter four hundred and thirty-