

three, of the Acts of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, be repealed and re-enacted to read as follows: Repealed and re-enacted.

1. Be it enacted, That the first, third, ninth, eleventh and twelfth districts of Baltimore county, shall be and are hereby divided into two or more voting precincts, in the manner hereinafter provided. Divide districts.

2. And be it enacted, That the first election district of Baltimore county be divided into two election precincts, with the following metes and bounds, that is to say: Precinct number one of the first election district, beginning for the same at a point on the Maiden's Choice Road, between the first and thirteenth districts of Baltimore county, at a culvert east of the dwelling house of W. R. Raisin, running due north to the east boundary line of the lands of the Union Bank of Baltimore; thence along the east boundary line of said lands to the Frederick turnpike road; across said road, and thence along the dividing line between Charles J. Baker and Sophia Schwartz, until it reaches the land of Howard Heald; thence along the east boundary line of the said Heald's land to the old Frederick road; up the said road to the southeast corner of the land of John Swann; thence north, through the lands of the said Swann and the land of Reverdy Johnson; west of said Johnson's dwelling house, and thence along the Spring Branch west of said Johnson's outbuildings, to the Dead Run Branch; thence along said Dead Run to Gwynn's Falls, which is the dividing line between the first and third election districts of Baltimore county; thence along said dividing line between the aforesaid districts to the city limits; along said city limits to the corner where the thirteenth district line commences, and thence along the line between the first and thirteenth districts to the place of beginning; and the place of voting in said precinct number one, shall be the Three Mile House on the Frederick turnpike road; precinct number two of said first election district shall comprise all of said first election district not included within the bounds of the above-described precinct, and the place of voting in said precinct number two shall be Catonsville; that the polls for the thirteenth district shall be held at John J. Wade's, Green Spring Hotel, near the fourth mile stone on the Washington road. Bounds.
