In Memoriam

BALLARD — In loving memory of my dear husband, SAMUEL BALLARD, who passed away March 19, 1963:
Those whom we love go out of sight
But never out of mind.
They are cherished in the heart
Of those they leave behind.
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days.
Loving Wife — CLARA.

ST. CLAIR — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, HUGHEY A. ST. CLAIR, who passed away March 22, 1970:
A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled;
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more.
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
Wife, ELNORA ST. CLAIR and CHILDREN.

ENGLISH — In loving memory of our dear, NELLIE, who passed away nineteen years ago, March 26, 1954:
Two dear, bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile,
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of "the other"
I know He said: "Well done, dear mother."
BELOVED CHILDREN

CARROLL-EDWARDS — A tribute of memory and love to my mother, ISABELLE EDWARDS CARROLL and my grandmother, BESSIE WASHINGTON EDWARDS, who entered into eternal rest, March 24, 1941:
When God called you home to Heaven,
I couldn't understand;
It seemed I would always have you here
To lend a helping hand;
To help me when I needed help,
To tell my troubles to;
Only God knows and understands
Just how much I miss you.
And when my call to follow comes,
Where you have gone before;
I hope to see you waiting
To meet me at Heaven's door.
Your Devoted Daughter and Granddaughter,
I. MAE CARROLL.

GROSS — In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, REV. JOSEPH GROSS, who passed away March 10, 1959:
Dear is the face we loved so dear,
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for thought to reach
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
And who though absent is just as dear.
EVELYN, BESSIE, LUCILLE and GRANDCHILDREN.

HAWKINS — In loving memory of my dear husband and our dear father, FRANK HAWKINS SR., who passed away March 20, 1972:
You fought the pain so bravely.
Your head, you did not bend
I kept the watch with you, dear husband,
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain,
God grant some day we'll meet again.
Loving Wife, ETHEL.
Gone, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember.
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
LOVING CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

HAZELTON — In loving memory of my dear sister DAISY LOUISE HAZELTON, who passed away four years ago, March 22, 1969:
If I had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sign from your heart,
I would not feel so bad.
I did not know the pain you had,
I did not see you die.
I only know you went far away
And never said goodbye.
Loving Sister, LEVY

SADIE HAZELTON BROOKS

JAMES — In loving memory of our dear loved one, ADA J. JAMES, who departed this life March 23, 1971:

WHITTINGTON — In memory of our dear mother and grandmother HARRIET WHITTINGTON, who passed away March 16, 1965:
Two dear, bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile,
Deep trust in God that all was right,

WALKER — In memory of my beloved husband and father, REV. JAMES H. WALKER, who was called from labor to reward seven years ago, March 20, 1966, we dedicate one of his favorite hymns:
THE OLD RUGGED CROSS
George Bennard
On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame; and I love that old cross where the dearest and best,
For a world of lost sinners was slain.
Oh, that old rugged cross so despised by the world,
Has a wondrous attraction for me.
For the dear Lamb of God left His glory above,
To bear it to dark calvary.
In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
A wondrous beauty I see;
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
To pardon and sanctify me.
To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then He'll call me somebody to my home far away
Where His glory forever I share.
So I cherish the old rugged cross,
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it some day for a crown.
Devoted Wife — NANCY CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.
