Woodlawn Highlights

BY MRS. MARJORIE GREENE

I WAS THERE! The color scheme was blue and white.

The Rev. Arthur E. Jones dressed in his blue formal shirt stood before us like a "Tall Tree in the Forest." It was impossible to imagine him being anything other than a minister of the gospel as he gave thanks unto God for guiding him through thirty years in the ministry.

The banquet room at Jones Tabernacle Baptist Church was crowded with almost 300 members of his congregation, ministers, friends and his co-workers from the Social Security Administration. All had come to express respect, love and admiration for the entire Jones family at this 30-year celebration.

Mrs. Clotelle Jones, his wife, was radiant in a sleeveless black gown accented with a blue corsage and a large sparkling buckle at the waist. None of us will ever forget the sweetness of the moment when she whispered "Arthur, I Love You Truly."

Nor will we forget the "This Is Your Life", presentation by Dr. Montague Brackett, president of the United Baptist Missionary Convention.

It was truly a beautiful Saturday evening.

Our hearts were saddened this week with the news of the tragic drowning of the son of Mrs. Olivia Weems. SSA co-workers showed how much they cared by extending many appreciated expressions of kindness to the bereaved family.

The Social Security All-Stars will meet the Mass Transit Association All-Stars at the Civic Center Sunday night. This basketball game will take place prior to the Bafto. Bullets vs. Atlanta. All monies received by the MTA team will be used to form a city wide Little League baseball team. Coordinator, the Rev. John Roy and vice president, Irvin Gates, are appealing to SSA employees to volunteer their services to work in the Little League program.

Social Security employees playing in the All Star game are: Charles Levi, Reginald Tunstall, Guthrie Mason, Emanuel Turner, Reginald Cornish, Clements Nixon, Benny Brown, Earl Cox, Paul Hood and Skip Cilano.

Coaching for the team will be Fred Conaway. He will be assisted by Roy Reese. Following the game, the Employees Activities Assoc. in SSa plans to award a trophy to the "Most Valuable Player" on the All Star team.

Mrs. Mildred Ranson, clerk in the Bureau of Data Processing, recently gave a tremendous performance as a musician and directress of a 75-voice choir. The occasion was the annual "Friends Day' at Galilee Baptist Church. The program consisted of "The Creation" and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah." Mrs. Ranson who is a very talented woman is the wife of the Rev. Shirley Ranson, pastor of Galilee.

It was a gay housewarming shower given last week by the friends of Mrs. Martha Mason.

The control section in the Disability Inquiries section was laden with gifts that matched the decor in Mrs. Mason's new Rosemont area home. Anytime is party-time for this young group who seem to throughly enjoy their lunch breaks when they are celebrating some happy event.

M's Charlotte Crenson, SSA press officer, will be leaving in April to take up new duties as a consumer protection specialist at the Blue Cross headquarters in Washington.

tonsville Community College. Her major is Social Science.

Recently she attended a Black Awareness Workshop conducted by a former SSA employee, Haris Brown and Associates. The workshop took place at the Moton Conference Center in Capahosic, Va.

Mrs. Pace was greatly impressed with the "laboratory-type experience." The workshop offers a deeper appreciation of one's own inner feelings, develops group trust and more effective, successful techniques for dealing with or relating to whites and the indominable power structure.

She is the mother of three children: a son 12, and two daughters, ages 9 and 6.

Household hints

Will you serve cocktails and mixed drinks at the reception after a champagne toast to the bride and groom? Figure on 13 to 17 (1 1/2 to 2-ounce) drinks from each fifth of liquor, or 16 to 21 drinks from each quart, says the Women's Division of Licensed Beverage industries, Inc. One hundred ice cubes, or an 8-10-ounce bag of commercially made ones, supplies enough cooling for 30 to 35 drinks. But a large block of ice chills punch best.

Give a professional look to a home-made wedding cake with decorations made from real flowers glistening with sugar crystals. Several hours before the cake will be served, brush tiny unsprayed rosebuds or other small unsprayed flowers with egg white beaten just until foamy. Use a shaker or sieve to sprinkle the flowers with superfine granulated sugar. Let them stand upright on cake racks until they are dry enough to arrange on the frosted cake.

Canadian bacon is fully cooked, cured and lightly smoked pork loin, with fat content ranging between 9 to 15 per cent.

YWCA trip to Pimlico

The group activities department of the Madison Avenue Center YWCA is sponsoring a spring outing at the races for adults. Planned for a time when the weather is pleasant, the convenient arrangements promise a relaxed day.

A bus trip to Pimlico Race Park on April 14 will leave from 1912 Madison Ave. at 10:30 a.m. and return about 5:30 p.m. The group will have lunch at the race track and reserved seats in the club house grand stand. A $10 fee includes transportation, lunch and reserved seats.

Seating is limited to 40 persons. Reservations close April 3 or sooner if the maximum number is reached.

To make a reservation call Mrs. Gertrude Finney, at the YWCA, 1912 Madison Ave., 669-1881.

Uncooked chicken can be stored safely at average freezer temperature for a year.
