

Mr. Chapman submitted the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
April 1st, 1872.

Gentlemen of the Senate of Maryland:

We have received your message, asking the return of a bill entitled an Act to repeal sections 33 and 34 of chapter 364 of the Acts of 1870, entitled "oysters," and to re-enact the following in lieu thereof, beg leave in response to say, that said bill, the return of which is requested by your Honorable Body, was a bill originating in this House, and after being duly considered and passed, was sent to your Honorable Body, and returned to this body, as passed by the Senate, having been read three times, in accordance with the Constitution. The said bill was then engrossed and sent to the Governor for his signature, and is not now within the control of this House. We must, therefore, beg to express our regrets that we cannot comply with the request of your Honorable Body.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Henkle submitted the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
April 1, 1872.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received from your Honorable Body, House bill entitled an Act to authorize and empower the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City, to endorse the first mortgage bonds of the Baltimore and Drum Point Railroad Company, to the amount of five hundred thousand dollars, reported unfavorably from a Select Committee of your Body, and report adopted.

We respectfully ask a Committee of Conference upon said bill to be composed of three on the part of each House. We have appointed on the part of this House, Messrs. Henkle, Sparrow and Markland.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the Senate.

The Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal, amend and re-
