

hereby imposed and conferred on said bailiff in as full and ample manner as if the several provisions of the said article and its supplements and amendments relating to the collection of county taxes were herein expressly enacted.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That said commissioners shall cause each male inhabitant of said town over twenty-one years of age, who does not pay taxes, to work upon the streets, lanes and alleys of said town, under the supervision of the bailiffs, at least one and not more than two days in each and every year, and if any person as aforesaid, after having been summoned in writing one day previous to the day appointed by the bailiff for working on the streets, shall fail to appear or provide some one in his stead, the said person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, shall be fined not exceeding two dollars.

Male inhabitants to work on the streets

22. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of said town shall publish annually a full and complete statement of their receipts and disbursements, in that newspaper printed in the town of Salisbury making the lowest charge for publishing the same.

To publish annually statement of receipts and disbursements

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That the commissioners now in office shall remain and continue to be commissioners of Salisbury until the first election under this Act, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and all their acts shall have the same effect, and be as binding in law, as if this Act had not been passed.

Remain in office.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

In force.

Approved April 1, 1872.