

bona fide employment, (as the case may be,) and the days upon which same were respectively sold; that I have examined the entries of all sales mentioned in said account, in the books kept by me for that purpose, and I fully believe this account to be correct; and further, that I have, during the time mentioned, conformed in all things to the provisions of the law relating to "Auctions" in Baltimore city, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, so help me God. And he shall cause a certificate of the fact that he has taken such oath, duly signed by said Justice or said Judge, and a certificate of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, of the official character of said Justice when signed by him, to be annexed to said return, and no account or return of sales as provided to be made and rendered in the last preceding section, shall be deemed or held to be "a true and particular account," within the meaning of said last preceding section, unless the oath herein provided is made and annexed to such account or return of sales, and the Auctioneer refusing or neglecting to make and to annex such oath, shall be liable to be proceeded against as if he had not made and rendered any account or return of sales, as required by law. Certificate to be attached.

SEC. 121. If any auctioneer shall refuse or neglect to transmit to the Treasurer a duplicate of the record of his recognizance as before required; or shall neglect or refuse to render an account of sales to the Comptroller of the City of Baltimore, quarterly, or shall refuse or neglect to transmit a duplicate copy of such account to the Comptroller of the State, within the time or times limited for rendering such accounts or transmitting such duplicates as provided in section one hundred and nineteen, of this law; or shall refuse or neglect to pay over to the Comptroller of the city as hereinbefore required, the money or moneys due from him to the State for duties, according to law, within thirty days after rendering such account, as hereinbefore directed, he shall, in and for each and every such case of refusal or neglect, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to presentment and indictment in Refusal or neglect to transmit duplicate.
Refuse or neglect to pay over.
