Speaking of Women

A pretty Morgan State College senior won the first place prize at the Beta Kappa Chi National Honor Society convention, held in Philadelphia. Lincoln University hosted the annual gathering of honor students who represented many of the colleges throughout the U.S.

Winner was Miss Delores P. Stanton, daughter of Mrs. Rosella S'anton of Elting St. and the late Corinthian Stanton. Her entry was entitled "Generalized Fourier Series and Bessel's In Equality."

Miss Stanton, 26, has been an honor student at Morgan since her freshman year. She holds a 3.7 scholastic average and is a member of the Promethean Kappa Tau Honor Society, Pi Mu Epsilon, a national honorary mathematics fraternity; Beta Kappa Pi, national scientific honor society; Math Honor Scholar 1972-1973, Alpha Kappa Mu national honor society, and is listed in Who's Who Among Students In American Colleges and Universities '72-73.

Currently, she is an instructor of mathematics at the Houston Woods Jr.-Sr. High School and a postal clerk in the evening. She is a member of the Pennsylvania Avenue AME Zion Church and enjoys reading and music

Many new faces are appearing at the Veterans Administration these days. Among them are Misses: Marian Garland, Geraldine Preston, Dorothy Thompson, Arlethea Terrill, Diane Epps, Evon Ricks, and Linda Faulcon.

Also, Kenneth Lee and Donnell Clark. All of these fine youngsters are a part of the NYC program.

Some were the recipients of gifts for their outstanding achievements by Wilbur Finwick, supervisor of Record control section. Mrs. Roxie Blackwell is group leader from NYC.

The Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group, Inc., had over 100 persons present at the regular meeting last week.

Topic of the evening was Better Service from the M. T. A.

Guest speakers were Clyde T. Headley, T. Hynes Jr., Lt. Cooper and Stephen C. Herith, all of M. T. A.

Other leaders were, Father Edmond Rego, St Veronica's Cherry Hill, Shephard Burge, president of Cherry Hill's Cooridinating Council and Mrs. Burge; Charles T. Parker, Housing Manager Mt. Winan's Westport, George Jackson, Freedom Movement and R. Gordon-CAA No. 28.

10 new stamps to highlight 'Postal Week'

Plans have been announced for 'Postal Week' to be celebrated in Baltimore from April 29 through May 5, according to District Manager Postmaster Warren M. Bloomberg

Included in the week long festivities will be a dramatization April 30 of the important roles performed by post office personnel, beginning 11 a.m.

Also, Mayor William D. Schaefer will issue a city proclamation citing the week as 'Postal Week' and the metropolitan post office will join with the 31,000 other postal employees around the nation in issuing 10 commemorative stamps honoring the men and women who keep the mail moving.

KLW's benefit party, April 29, Club Venus

The KLW's club, an energetic civic and charitable group of women organized in 1964 (formerly known as the Mohawk Mothers Club) will present their ninth Annual Benefit Cocktail Party and Fashion Show from 3-7 on Sunday, April 29, at Club Venus.

This organization was founded by Mesdames Margaret K. Ross, and Lena K. Lee to engage in activities and fund-raising projects to help improve attendance facilities and program at Camp Mohawk, now Camp Kings Landing, a residential camp for boys and girls sponsored by the YMCA, located in Huntingtown, Md.

The organization has made very significant contributions to the camp during its existence. Officers Mamie Jones (president) and Marjorie Green (Benefit Chairman) have announced that the benefit is a sell out again this year.

The KLW's have planned an afternoon of fun, prizes and surprises. Highlight of the afternoon will be a fashion show with the latest of women's fashions shown from Wetzlers, Harford Mall Shopping Center, and Belair, modeled by the KWL's models. An exciting addition this year will be the appearance of Donald Clapp modeling the latest of male fashions from the shop of Lawrence Parker Lmtd., North Eutaw St. He will also show original men's fashions designed by Ronald D. Dow of Baltimore, displaying the ultimate in high fashion among his creations.

The President stated that "many contributions have been made to the organization to help enhance the affair and that as in former years said the chairman, Mrs. Margie Green, "and the KLW members have done a magnificent job in this effort because of the efforts and continued support of their many friends and contributors the organization has been able to make very significant contributions to their pet charity Camp Kings Landing each year".

Members of the KLW club include: Mesdames Vivian Bailey, Louise Braxton, Alease Ball, Gwendolyn Clarke, Colles Corprew, Marjorie Green, Myrtle Harrod, Blanche Hughes, Mamie Jones, Roberta Keets, Lena Lee.

Also Mesdames Betty Lindsey, Gertrude McKella, Bettye Moss, Elsie Mackey, Mildred Nelson, Adele Queen, Margaret Ross, Rosie Salley, Doris Street, Geneva Small, Mary Smith, Helen Tucker, Mary Upsher, Evanus Webb, Phyllis Waters and Margaret White.

Ms. Iris Warren and Dr. Henry K. Githara were among those seen at the recent Las Amigos convention, held recently at the Hilton Hotel. Ms. Warren is a member of the group.

dinner-theatre party at Bolton Hill Dinner Theatre on May 1.

The affair is being sponsored by the Little Important People, Inc. Congressman Parren J. Mitchell (D-7th) will be on hand to present the awards.

Mrs. Eunice Ridley is chairman; Mrs. Alhoa Warren, secretary; Mrs. Katherine Milburn, advisor, Mrs. Mary Sollers, founder and business agent.

VARIETY DINNER

The Sisters We, under the leadership of Mrs. Doretha Green, held their first variety dinner last Saturday at 1402 E. Eager St. Guests dined from a multitude of deliciously prepared dishes prepared by members of the group.

SPRING DANCE

The Alpha Zeta Chapter of eta Phi Beta Sorority will be at Martins West for their annual spring dance on May 4. Mrs. Carrie Dorsey Jackson is chairman for the affair.
