SEN. WELCOME TRAVELS

Each week this writer urges AFRO readers to send in news which can be used in this section. Senator Verda F. Welcome read this notice and personally had her secretary, Mrs. Sally Lackey, send me a note. It read:

"On April 12, the Senator went to New York to attend a large dinner honoring Mrs. Dorothy I. Height, president of the National Council of Negro Women.

"It was held in the Imperial Ballroom of the Americana Hotel. Some of the other dignitaries attending were Mrs. Martin Luther King, Vernon Jordan, the Hon. Martha Griffiths, Miss Marian Anderson and Miss Ruby Dee. Chairman of the dinner was Henry Fern II.

"While in New York, Senator Welcome took a much needed rest from the hectic last days of the legislature and altered two plays."

(CUFF NOTE: Senator Welcome will be honored by a group who call themselves the Recognition Committee for Senator Welcome on May 25 at the Alcazar. Mrs. Thelma Cox is chairman.)

THE KRINONS

The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Gamma Chapter, a professional organizations of educators, recently formed a new group of pledges. They're the Krinons.

The Krinons will carry on probationary activities for eight weeks and will be inducted into the chapter in June. The pledgees are currently engaged in planning an educational activity designed to improve the reading techniques of students during the summer months.
