Mrs. Melva Ginyard of First Baptist

Funeral services for Mrs. Melva J. Ginyard, 62, 4109 Chatham Rd., were held today (Friday) at First Baptist Church, Caroline and McElderry Sts. where she had been a member since 1932. Burial followed at Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mrs. Ginyard died April 30 after a short illness.

Born and educated in Norfolk, Va., she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Rosa) Jenkins.

A longtime employee of the Post Office, Mrs. Ginyard was on the executive board of the National Alliance of Federal and Postal Employees.

In 1972, Mrs. Ginyard was elected to serve as 2nd Vice-President of the National Alliance of Federal and Postal Employees Local No. 202.

Mrs. Ginyard is survived by her husband, Oscar Lee Ginyard; sons, Rudolph and Laurence Jenkins; mother, Mrs. Rosa Jenkins; sisters, Mrs. Helen Booker, Mrs. Corrine Murray, Mrs. Dorothea J. Henry; brothers, Arnold and Charles Jenkins all of Baltimore.

May Fellowship Day celebrated at church

May Fellowship Day was celebrated in Baltimore City today (May 4) from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. by Church Women United at the Loch Raven United Methodist Church.

This year's theme was "As a Hand Touches Hand" signifying the helping hand of church women who work in volunteer services in their local communities.

Since the first May Fellowship Day observances in 1933 it has been traditional for church women across the country to use the first Friday in May to emphasize the creative and healing relations that are possible among people in every community. Each year, Church Women United has found new ways to express God's love for all people through just relations in society.

This May Fellowship Day was a salute to the volunteers from local units of Church Women United who have initiated programs in health care, education for children and adults, services to the aging and to the imprisoned.

Volunteers are working as monitors of legislation, as advocates for self-help programs, and as educators in the areas of consumerism, ecology, peace-building, international trade, and human rights

Episcopal convention May 11-12

The 189th Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland will be held on May 11 and 12 at the Hunt Valley Inn located off I-83 at Shawan Road in Hunt Valley, Md.

The Inn was chosen as the site for this convention due to the central location of the Gunpowder Regional Council, which will host this year's convention.

The Maryland Diocese consists of all Episcopal Churches from the State of Maryland, with the exception of the Eastern Shore and the counties bordering metropolitan Washington.

This year will be the first time in the history of the Maryland Diocese that the convention will be held at a public facility.

The Rt. Rev. David K. Leighton, Bishop of Maryland, and the Rt. Rev. William J. Cox, Suffragan Bishop, will preside at the Convention.

After registration of approximately 400 delegates, there will be a business meeting, followed by a Eucharist.

Music for this service will be led by the combined choirs of the five churches, under the direction of Dr. George H. Sack, Organist and Choir Master of Trinity, Long Green.

On Saturday morning, the delegates will visit the five churches in the region.

GOOD NEIGHBOR RETIRES

T. Shelton Coles plans to pursue his hobbies

By BEN PHILLIPS

"I'm just going to play around with my photography, gardening, and fishing."

These are the plans T. Shelton Coles has for his retirement.

Mr. Coles retired April 9 from the Baltimore City Department of Housing and Community Development after 11 years of service.

His fellow co-workers gave him a retirement party at the headquarters, 1313 Druid Hill on April 6. As senior housing renewal estimator, Mr. Coles feels his greatest satisfaction while on the job was helping people. "I would go around and estimate the cost for rehabilitating a home and then make sure that the contractors did the work correctly."

Being a young 64, Mr. Coles has been a member of the Baltimore community since 1939. After graduation from Morehouse College in 1937, he came to Baltimore and worked at the AFRO, where he organized the Department of Circulation-Promotion. He remained at the AFRO until 1942, when he went into the army.

After his discharge, Mr. Coles ran the Em-Cee Contracting Company for 13 years in a co-partnership with Alfred Moore.

Mr. Coles is also the founder of Baltimore's Advance Federal Savings and Loan Association where he served as its first president.

* * *

Known as a good neighbor and hard worker in whatever he undertakes, Mr. Coles belongs to St. James Episcopal Church and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of that church.

He also holds membership in Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc., past master of Toscan Lodge No. 90 Prince Hall Masons.

In the near future, he plans traveling to Morehouse's commencement, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and the Omega Conclave.

Mr. Coles has been married to his wife Majorie for 32 years. She was a supervisor at the Juvenile court for 21 years, until she retired in 1969.

'SPRINGTHING'

CCB top annual event happens this weekend

A unique community event is being planned for the Community College of Baltimore campus this weekend. It is called 'Springthing.'

The two day affair will be held on the college's Liberty campus and features a variety of live entertainment and educational exhibits.

The Saturday portion of 'Springthing' is being geared toward high school students, while Sunday is more for adults, according to a college spokesman.

Visitors will be able to become acquainted with the CCB liberal arts and career programs and see what the college has to offer educationally.

Students, businessmen, workers, homemakers and families will be able to visit the radio-television and art-music studios as well as the data-processing, engineering and allied health laboratories of CCB.

Entertainment will include jazz concerts, choir and band performances and dance presentations as well as art displays. A complete show, "Harvey," will be performed.

Eleven high schools will join CCB in presenting "Springthing."

On Saturday, May 5, the Douglass High School Band will present on the platform in front of the Administration Building, a concert, beginning at 11 a.m.

At noon in the Campus Theatre, a performance of modern dance will be given by Eastern High School students, who will be followed at 12:30 p.m. by a Northern High School students, who will be followed at 12:30 p.m. by a Northern High School Dance Group. Then at 1:45 p.m. Southern High School's Instrumental Department will give an hour's concert.

For those who enjoy jazz, a 30-piece jazz band from Frankondson High will be performing. From Walbrook High will come a modern dance group of 55 members.

The college itself will present around campus, a series of educational exhibits.

A mural will be painted in the Bard Library by Mack Coleman who will answer questions about this art-form.

The Science Department will show special plants and terrariums, and those interested may purchase flowers.

The CCB Players will present "Harvey" as part of a dinner-theatre affair. Advance reservations are needed for the dinner which begins at 6:30 p.m. Visitors may also take tours of the Bard Library and purchase books.

"Springthing" resumes its activities Sunday beginning at 1 p.m. when new exhibits plus ones from Saturday will open to the public.

Of special interest to women will be an exhibit entitled "Women's Headgear Through the Ages, Reflecting Women's Important Role in History."

Special entertainment will also be available Sunday.

SPRINGTHING — Tenor sax performer, Maritta Coleman, will be among the CCB band which is scheduled to play at the local college's Spring fete this weekend. The May 5-6 affair will be held on CCB's Liberty campus and a variety of entertainment and educational exhibits.

Mathias fundraiser makes $100,000 here

The Baltimore Civic Center was host Tuesday night to a Republican fundraiser for Sen. Charles McC. Mathias' 1974 re-election campaign, which made $100,000.

Entitled "Salute to Mathias," the affair featured cocktails and buffet, followed by a short address by Sen. Hugh Scott (R., Pa.) and speech by Sen. Mathias.

Also in attendance was an extensive who's who of the GOP, including George Bush, chairman of the Republican National Committee; Sen. and Mrs. Theodore F. Stevens of Alaska; Sen. Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.) Sen. Lowell Weicker, Jr. (R., Conn.); Sen. William V. Roth Jr., (R., Del.) and Sen. Charles Percy (R., Ill.)

Plus: Sen. and Mrs. Roman Hruska of Nebraska; Sen. Peter V. Domenici (R., N. M.); Sen. and Mrs. William B. Saxbe of Ohio; Sen. Robert P. Stafford (R. Vt.); Sen. Hiram L. Fong (R., Hawaii); Sen. and Mrs. Richard P. Hansen of Wyoming; and Sen. and Mrs. Robert Taft, Jr. of Ohio.

In addition: Sen. Clifford Case (R., N. J.); Sen. Richard S. Schweiker (R., Pa.); Cong. William O. Mills (R., Md.); Cong. Marjorie Holt and Duncan Holt; Prince George's County Executive William G. Gullett; Anne Arundel County Executive Joseph W. Alton, Jr.; and Republican State Chairman Alexander Lankler.

Y names chairmen for marathon swim

Nine area chairmen have been named for the YMCA's second annual fund raising swim marathon, scheduled for this weekend.

Metropolitan chairman David Thomas said that 000 children and adults are expected to take part in the event, which seeks to supplement United Fund support for association youth programs.

Baltimore city area chairmen for the swim are Ken Williams for Central branch, Ricardo Turner for Druid Hill branch, and Lee Moriconi for Northeast branch.

Morgan State graduation reset 2 hours

Morgan State College's 106th annual Commencement Exercises have been reset for 2 p.m., Sunday, May 27, instead of 4 p.m. as requested by the senior class.

The graduates felt the earlier hour would allow parents and guests traveling great distances for the occasion to have more daylight for travel after the event.

Presenting the main address will be Morgan alumnus, Cong. Parren J. Mitchell (D. 7), the first black congressman elected from Maryland.

Exercises will be held in the W. A. C. Hughes Memorial Stadium on campus.

Alumni Day this year is Saturday, May 26.

According to John W. Patterson, executive director of alumni affairs, the day will commence at 3 p.m. with the Alumni Association's business meeting at the Baltimore Hilton.

After cocktails and a buffet dinner, the day ends with class reunions (for the years ending with "3" and "8") starting at 8:30 p.m.

MAY 8 . .

Park School has chosen the occasion of its annual May Day celebration on May 8th to pay homage to Dr. Lucille Liberles, pediatrician at the School for the past fifty years. Charles R. Callanan is headmaster.
