In Memoriam

CAMPBELL—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, BESSIE L. CAMPBELL, who passed away May 10, 1969:
When one you care for has departed,
And sit alone and broken-hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship, we know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything—
The grave its victory—death its sting.
We, who loved you, sadly miss you;
We, who held you very dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with us every day.
From Husband—
REV. CAMPBELL
and CHILDREN

DIGGS—In loving memory of my dear husband, JOSIAH DIGGS, who departed this life April 26, 1938:
When one you care for has departed,
And sit alone and broken-hearted,

This always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship, I know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything.
But loved you, sadly miss you;
I hold you very dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near
Though God has taken you away
You are with me every day.
Devoted Wife—

Sometimes it's hard to understand
And harder still to say.
"Thy will be done" when sorry comes
And sadness fills our day.

And if we take God's hand
With loving wisdom He will help
Our hearts to understand.
