Bay Sea Trout Plentiful

ANNAPOLIS — Maryland watermen are reporting record catches of "good sized" sea trout, according to Gordon P. Hallock, director of Maryland's Seafood Marketing Authority, a Division of the Department of Economic and Community Development.

Hallock said the delicious eating sea trout are now running heavy in the lower Chesapeake Bay and there are reports of good catches in the Tangier and Pocomoke Sounds. The Potomac and Patuxent Rivers are also good sources for sea trout. For the next few months sea trout should be plentiful and available at most fish counters around the State.

The sea trout is sometimes referred to as the spotted sea trout and is a member of the drum family of fishes found along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. The spotted sea trout ranges from Long Island in the north to the Carolinas in the south, although stragglers have been found north of Cape Cod and southward to IFlorida.

The spawning season for sea trout is concentrated during June and July. The sea trout is an estuarine spawner producing many thousands of tiny pelagic or floating eggs. Development is rapid with hatching taking place in two days. The young begin to move out of the bays in late summer when they are 2-4 inches long. Spawning begins when the fish are two years old and most individuals do not live beyond four years of age.

The bulk of the harvest is taken during the spawning season with tendency for older fish to be taken earlier in the season and farther north. Sea trout, which grow up to nine inches in their first year, weigh one to three pounds on the average.

Sea trout is high in protein and low in calories, thus making it an excellent meal for any family. The following recipes can be used with sea trout, perch, shad or rockfish. For additional information or for a copy of the Seafood Marketing Authority's new fish recipe brochure, write: Fish Recipes, 2525 Riva Road, Annapolis, Md. 21401.

MARYLAND SUNSHINE FISH

Three pound pan-dressed Maryland fish such as sea trout, shad, perch or rockfish. Salt for sprinkling. Lemon and pepper seasoning, for sprinkling Sunshine stuffing. (See below). Pan juices from stuffing.

Wash and dry fish. Sprinkle inside and out with salt and lemon and pepper seasoning. Stuff fish and place in single layer in foil-lined baking pan. Pour pan juices from stuffing over fish.

Bake in 350 degrees F. oven until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork, about 25 to 35 minutes. Baste, occasionally with pan juices while baking.

Makes 6 servings

SUNSHINE STUFFING

Three stalks celery with leaves, one small onion, one fourth cup margarine or butter, three fourth cup water, one fourth cup orange juice, two tablespoons lemon juice, one tablespoon grated orange rind, three fourth teaspoon salt, one fourth teaspoon pepper, one cup cooked rice, one half toasted blanched almonds.

Chop celery and onion and cook in margarine or butter until tender. Add water, juices, orange rind, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil and stir in rice. Remove from heat, cover and let stand 5 minutes. Mix in almonds.

Use to stuff fish in above recipe. Reserve juices for basting fish.

BAT BROILED FISH

Three lbs. pan-dressed Maryland fish such as sea trout, shad, perch or rockfish, one fourth cup melted margarine or butter, two tablespoons lemon juice, 1 and one half teaspoons salt, one fourth teaspoon lemon and pepper seasoning, three fourth teaspoon paprika

Wash and dry fish. Place in a single layer on a well-greased baking pan. Mix remaining ingredients well. Liberally brush fish inside about four inches from and out with sauce. Broil source of heat for five minutes. Turn carefully and baste with sauce.

Broil until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork, about five minutes. Serve at once with remaining sauce. Makes 6 servings.
